NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE Boston Advocate, a colored people's paper, has suspended publication because the patrons did not pay their subscriptions.

SENATOR VANCOTT will not resign his seat at Albany to take charge of the New York Postoffice till the high license and tariff reforms and some other vital measures have been acted upon. He is a thoroughbred Republican.

MRS. JAMES BROWN POTTER refuses to petition the President to pardon the thief who stole her diamonds last fall, though earnestly entreated to do so. She believes the culprit to be a confirmed thief who should not be turned loose.

ELECTIONS for town and city officers are proceeding to-day at West Troy and Cohoes. The Murphy and Herrick gangs were drawn up in battle array last night, and bloody occurrences were looked for. The Republicans are likely to win some victories if a few hundred Democratic heads are broken.

JAMES LEWIS of Buffalo applied to Corporal Tanner for a position in the Pension office. Not receiving it as soon as expected, he took a dose of morphine and tried to die. After he had partially recovered he received an appointment at a salary of $1,800. But he had disgraced himself, and shame impelled him to decline.

POSTMASTER VAN COTT has taken a wise precaution to lessen his own financial responsibility. Instead of filing his own bond for $600,000, he requires all employes in responsible positions to file bonds of from $1,000 to $10,000 each. These individual bonds amount to about $150,000. Mr. VanCott's bond will therefore amount to about $450,000.

THREE THOUSAND workingmen are out of employment and destitute along the line of the Panama canal, and some deaths from starvation have resulted. Negroes and women and children are the worst sufferers. There is an earnest call for the West Indian government to send the people back to their homes. More than 8,000 workingmen have already left.

THE snow storm that spread over Virginia on Saturday and Sunday appears to have avoided the extreme northern latitudes. It is another reminder to the South of the progress of Northern ideas and fashions in that direction. If the Southern section wishes an infusion of Northern energy, capital, brains, education, political liberality, etc., it must take our weather also.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has rented a cottage at Deer Park, Md., for his family's summer residence. Mr. Morton will spend the summer with his family at Ellerslie. Mrs. Wanamaker and family will continue their travels in Europe. Mrs. Windom will remain in Washington with her husband, The families of the other Cabinet officers will go to their several homes.

THE appointment of James T. Campbell of Lowville as Superintendent of Division No. 2, Black River Canal by Superintendent of Public Works Shanahan is severely criticised because Mr. Campbell is a railroad contractor. Mr. Shanahan has been accused himself of having so strong an affinity for railroads as to interfere with his usefulness as a canal manager.

A CRY of alarm comes from Oklahoma. It is said that the hundreds of boomers who are in hiding along the streams, ready to pounce upon their claims on the 22d, are determined to burn the bridges and trestles of the Santa Fe railroad on the night of the 21st, so that no train can enter the next day. The boomers also swear that they will fight for their claims, and shed blood if necessary.

C. E. WRIGHT died at Smethport, Pa., a few days ago, aged 75 years. Mr. Wright learned the printer's trade with David Johnson of the Delhi Gazette, and afterwards established the Deposit Courier, which he conducted from 1849 to 1853. He subsequently went West. The death of a talented son, who stood in the front rank of newspaper men at Chicago, saddened his declining years.

CASHIER P. F. PRATT of the First National Bank of Anoka, Minn., is missing with a large sum of the bank's money. Already $100,000 is missed, and further developments are expected. Pratt's wife left him last summer on account of his intimacy with a good looking widow named Jacobson, and this woman is also absent. The fugitives are supposed to be in Canada. The bank's doors are closed and a receiver has been appointed.

REV. JOHN FREUND, pastor of the German Evangelical church at Hoboken, has resigned. The trustees had told him that he must stop visiting beer saloons. Freund insisted that he was a German in ideas and customs, one of the latter of which was to take an occasional glass of beer. The trustees demanded the preaching of American Christianity, which has no beer in it. So the reverend gentleman resigned, and will probably return to Fatherland.

SUPPLEMENTAL elections in eleven districts of Rhode Island on Saturday resulted in the election of one Senator and three Representatives. The Republicans now have 51 and the Democrats 47 on joint ballot. Ten more are to be elected. To make a complete majority the Republicans must elect four of these ten. The election processes of Rhode Island are still very absurd. The little state should have learned from the example of bigger states that it is safe to entrust the control of affairs to a plurality.

PRESIDENT HARRISON is preserving his health by long walks, but it is not safe for everybody to imitate him. Thus his friend, ex-Gov. Porter, recently appointed Minister to Italy, took a long walk last week, the result of which was the swelling of his feet till the skin peeled off, and he has since been very ill. It is to be hoped that the Italian government will consider Gov. Porter's infirmity, and not start him on a tramp all over Europe and Africa, in search of a resting place, as it did Mr. Cleveland's appointee, poor Kieley.

THE ARMS COURT MARTIAL.

IN REFERENCE TO APPOINTMENTS.

Believed No More will be Made for Two Weeks; Vermont "Slate."

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, April 8.—A Washington dispatch to the Post says: There was no apparent movement at the White House to-day in regard to filling the New-York offices. Assistant Secretary Batcheller does not think any further appointments will be made for two weeks. It is said Secretary Windom has reconsidered the appointment of Judge Crowell, of Minnesota, formerly Sixth Auditor, for reinstatement to his old position, and R. C. Parsons of Cleveland, formerly United States Marshal of this District, for Comptroller of the Cerrency.

The Vermont delegation in Congress has held a conference about the Federal offices in that State which lasted two days. That conference may have an important political bearing. Every passer of every applicant was carefully examined, and the applications were passed upon as if each case were a cause in Court. As a result the delegation has unanimously agreed upon the following "slate:" For Collector of Customs at Burlington, to succeed B.B. Smalley, a member of the Democratic National Committee, G. G. Benedict, of Burlington; for United States District Attorney, Frank Plumley, of Northfield; for United States Marshal, Rollin Amsden, of Windsor; for Bank Examiner, Roswell Farnham, of Bradford. There are two vacancies, which are to be filled at once. As to the other officers, the delegation has decided that the incumbents shall be permitted to hold them for four years from the time they entered upon them.

Vermont and New-Hampshire constitute one pension district and the Pension Agent has always been appointed from New-Hampshire. The delegation voted that the agent now ought to be selected from Vermont, and a paper will be prepared, making this claim. If the appointment is conceded to Vermont the delegation will decide between the claims of the applicants for this position. There are two candidates—John C. Stearns, of Bradford, and ex-Governor Pingree, of Hartford. The delegation also recommended that the principle that the incumbents shall be permitted to hold their offices for four years shall also apply to the Presidential Postmasters. A decision as to the Inspectors of Customs is held in abeyance until the policy of the Administration shall be learned with respect to these offices. The adoption of the policy outlined above would greatly simplify the office-seeking problem, relieve the pressure upon the Department, the White House, and the Congressmen, and do much to empty the Washington hotels and boarding houses.

SCENES OF VIOLENCE IN ROCHESTER.

The Car Strike Situation Remains Practically Unchanged; Narrow Escape.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ROCHESTER, April 8.—The car strike situation remains practically unchanged. About 25 cars are running. Another disturbance like that of Saturday occurred on Main-street at noon. Thousands of men lined the tracks and hooted at the drivers of cars as they passed. A few stones were thrown, and one driver drew a revolver and attempted to fire it into the crowd. It was knocked out of his hand and picked up by an officer. Chief of Detectives Hagden had a narrow escape. Some one threw a brick at him, which narrowly missed his head and then crashed through the side of a passing car. The street was clear five minutes after the 1 o'clock whistle blew, the mob having returned to their work.

THE CARPENTERS' STRIKE AT ST. LOUIS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, April 8.—The master builders Saturday night renewed their offer to the striking carpenters, but declared they would not recognize the Union. Yesterday 1,500 striking carpenters decided to refuse the terms offered unless the builders recognize the Union.

SOME RECENT DISASTROUS FIRES.

Big Blaze in Baldwinsville, N. Y.; Conflagration at Aberdeen, Miss.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 8.—About 9 o'clock last night a disastrous fire broke out at Baldwinsville and swept out the Alden block, between the Upson block and the Canal, on Bridge-street. The fire originated in the back part of the store occupied by C. Warner & Company. The block contained the stores of C. Warner & Company, dry goods; W. A. Bronson, boots and shoes; N. B. Brooks, saloon; S. C. Suydam, drugs and jewelry; E. L. Bisdee, meat market; United States Express Company; and Miss McDonald's dress making establishment. The loss will aggregate about $45,000; fully covered by insurance. About 3 o'clock, this morning, the fire broke out afresh in the Upson block, burning out the upper floors; the clothing stores of J. W. Upson, grocery store of W. H. Tappan, and billiard room of J. E. Glover being deluged by water. Loss covered by insurance.

IN FAVOR OF SCRIP LOCATIONS.

Decision by Register and Receiver of a Land Office in Michigan.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

MARQUETTE, Mich., April 8.—The Register and Receiver of the Land Office for this district have decided in favor of the scrip locations on the lands within the indemnity limits of the old Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagan Railroad grant, recently declared forfeited, as against the homestead and pre-emption settlers, who claimed the lands in dispute by virtue of actual entry thereon, as soon as they were thrown open to entry, as against the scrippers, who had previously applied for the lands.

"London Times" May Not Survive.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

One Railroad Passenger Killed and Many Others Severely or Slightly Injured.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, April 8.—A defective switch derailed a passenger train on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad between Colehour and South Chicago, yesterday. The casualties are as follows: James Hanna, of Smith's Basin, N. Y., had an iron rod thrust through his head and died shortly afterward. Henry Houk, a farmer, of Adamsville, Ia., had a leg broken in two places and received internal injuries. Among others severely bruised and cut were: Frank Shelton, of Smiths Basin, N. Y.; John H. MacDonald, of Antigonish, N. S.; B. O. Rambo, Sheely, Ohio; H. Straley, Cleveland, O.; Mrs. John E. Wood, Alexander Wood, Cuba, N. Y., and A. Berschig, Cleveland. None of these are fatally injured. Several other men were slightly cut and shaken up but went away without reporting. Those severely hurt were sent to St. Luke's Hospital.

CRASH IN VIRGINIA.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WEST POINT, Va., April 8.—A fatal wreck occurred on the York River branch of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, two miles above this place about 9 o'clock Saturday night. The heavy rains of Saturday washed out a culvert and a part of the dam between the tank pond and the River and an engine and seven freight cars plunged into the wash-out. Two men, a colored brakeman, and the fireman, a young man named Durvin, were buried under the cars and killed. Engineer Lynch was terribly scalded, but managed to crawl out of the wreck.

EASTON, Pa., April 8.—Jacob Sandt, Eminent Commander of the Hugh DePayn Commandery, Knights Templar, committed suicide this morning by hanging. The act is believed to have been due to melancholy over the return of an old illness. He was one of Easton's most respected citizens.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE Boston Advocate, a colored people's paper, has suspended publication because the patrons did not pay their subscriptions.

SENATOR VANCOTT will not resign his seat at Albany to take charge of the New York Postoffice till the high license and tariff reforms and some other vital measures have been acted upon. He is a thoroughbred Republican.

MRS. JAMES BROWN POTTER refuses to petition the President to pardon the thief who stole her diamonds last fall, though earnestly entreated to do so. She believes the culprit to be a confirmed thief who should not be turned loose.

ELECTIONS for town and city officers are proceeding to-day at West Troy and Cohoes. The Murphy and Herrick gangs were drawn up in battle array last night, and bloody occurrences were looked for. The Republicans are likely to win some victories if a few hundred Democratic heads are broken.

JAMES LEWIS of Buffalo applied to Corporal Tanner for a position in the Pension office. Not receiving it as soon as expected, he took a dose of morphine and tried to die. After he had partially recovered he received an appointment at a salary of $1,800. But he had disgraced himself, and shame impelled him to decline.

POSTMASTER VAN COTT has taken a wise precaution to lessen his own financial responsibility. Instead of filing his own bond for $600,000, he requires all employes in responsible positions to file bonds of from $1,000 to $10,000 each. These individual bonds amount to about $150,000. Mr. VanCott's bond will therefore amount to about $450,000.

THREE THOUSAND workingmen are out of employment and destitute along the line of the Panama canal, and some deaths from starvation have resulted. Negroes and women and children are the worst sufferers. There is an earnest call for the West Indian government to send the people back to their homes. More than 8,000 workingmen have already left.

THE snow storm that spread over Virginia on Saturday and Sunday appears to have avoided the extreme northern latitudes. It is another reminder to the South of the progress of Northern ideas and fashions in that direction. If the Southern section wishes an infusion of Northern energy, capital, brains, education, political liberality, etc., it must take our weather also.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has rented a cottage at Deer Park, Md., for his family's summer residence. Mr. Morton will spend the summer with his family at Ellerslie. Mrs. Wanamaker and family will continue their travels in Europe. Mrs. Windom will remain in Washington with her husband. The families of the other Cabinet officers will go to their several homes.

THE appointment of James T. Campbell of Lowville as Superintendent of Division No. 2, Black River Canal by Superintendent of Public Works Shanahan is severely criticised because Mr. Campbell is a railroad contractor. Mr. Shanahan has been accused himself of having so strong an affinity for railroads as to interfere with his usefulness as a canal manager.

A CRY of alarm comes from Oklahoma. It is said that the hundreds of boomers who are in hiding along the streams, ready to pounce upon their claims on the 22d, are determined to burn the bridges and trestles of the Santa Fe railroad on the night of the 21st, so that no train can enter the next day. The boomers also swear that they will fight for their claims, and shed blood if necessary.

C. E. WRIGHT died at Smethport, Pa., a few days ago, aged 75 years. Mr. Wright learned the printer's trade with David Johnson of the Delhi Gazette, and afterwards established the Deposit Courier, which he conducted from 1849 to 1853. He subsequently went West. The death of a talented son, who stood in the front rank of newspaper men at Chicago, saddened his declining years.

CASHIER P. F. PRATT of the First National Bank of Anoka, Minn., is missing with a large sum of the bank's money. Already $100,000 is missed, and further developments are expected. Pratt's wife left him last summer on account of his intimacy with a good looking widow named Jacobson, and this woman is also absent. The fugitives are supposed to be in Canada. The bank's doors are closed and a receiver has been appointed.

REV. JOHN FREUND, pastor of the German Evangelical church at Hoboken, has resigned. The trustees had told him that he must stop visiting beer saloons. Freund insisted that he was a German in ideas and customs, one of the latter of which was to take an occasional glass of beer. The trustees demanded the preaching of American Christianity, which has no beer in it. So the reverend gentleman resigned, and will probably return to Fatherland.

SUPPLEMENTAL elections in eleven districts of Rhode Island on Saturday resulted in the election of one Senator and three Representatives. The Republicans now have 51 and the Democrats 47 on joint ballot. Ten more are to be elected. To make a complete majority the Republicans must elect four of these ten. The election processes of Rhode Island are still very absurd. The little state should have learned from the example of bigger states that it is safe to entrust the control of affairs to a plurality.

PRESIDENT HARRISON is preserving his health by long walks, but it is not safe for everybody to imitate him. Thus his friend, ex-Gov. Porter, recently appointed Minister to Italy, took a long walk last week, the result of which was the swelling of his feet till the skin peeled off, and he has since been very ill. It is to be hoped that the Italian government will consider Gov. Porter's infirmity, and not start him on a tramp all over Europe and Africa, in search of a resting place, as it did Mr. Cleveland's appointee, poor Kieley.

IN REFERENCE TO APPOINTMENTS.

Believed No More will be Made for Two Weeks; Vermont "Slate."

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, April 8.—A Washington dispatch to the Post says: There was no apparent movement at the White House to-day in regard to filling the New-York offices. Assistant Secretary Batcheller does not think any further appointments will be made for two weeks. It is said Secretary Windom has reconsidered the appointment of Judge Crowell, of Minnesota, formerly Sixth Auditor, for reinstatement to his old position, and R. C. Parsons of Cleveland, formerly United States Marshal of this District, for Comptroller of the Cerrency.

The Vermont delegation in Congress has held a conference about the Federal offices in that State which lasted two days. That conference may have an important political bearing. Every passer of every applicant was carefully examined, and the applications were passed upon as if each case were a cause in Court. As a result the delegation has unanimously agreed upon the following "slate:" For Collector of Customs at Burlington, to succeed B.B. Smalley, a member of the Democratic National Committee, G. G. Benedict, of Burlington; for United States District Attorney, Frank Plumley, of Northfield; for United States Marshal, Rollin Amsden, of Windsor; for Bank Examiner, Roswell Farnham, of Bradford. There are two vacancies, which are to be filled at once. As to the other officers, the delegation has decided that the incumbents shall be permitted to hold them for four years from the time they entered upon them.

Vermont and New-Hampshire constitute one pension district and the Pension Agent has always been appointed from New-Hampshire. The delegation voted that the agent now ought to be selected from Vermont, and a paper will be prepared, making this claim. If the appointment is conceded to Vermont the delegation will decide between the claims of the applicants for this position. There are two candidates—John C. Stearns, of Bradford, and ex-Governor Pingree, of Hartford. The delegation also recommended that the principle that the incumbents shall be permitted to hold their offices for four years shall also apply to the Presidential Postmasters. A decision as to the Inspectors of Customs is held in abeyance until the policy of the Administration shall be learned with respect to these offices. The adoption of the policy outlined above would greatly simplify the office-seeking problem, relieve the pressure upon the Department, the White House, and the Congressmen, and do much to empty the Washington hotels and boarding houses.

SCENES OF VIOLENCE IN ROCHESTER.

The Car Strike Situation Remains Practically Unchanged; Narrow Escape.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ROCHESTER, April 8.—The car strike situation remains practically unchanged. About 25 cars are running. Another disturbance like that of Saturday occurred on Main-street at noon. Thousands of men lined the tracks and hooted at the drivers of cars as they passed. A few stones were thrown, and one driver drew a revolver and attempted to fire it into the crowd. It was knocked out of his hand and picked up by an officer. Chief of Detectives Hagden had a narrow escape. Some one threw a brick at him, which narrowly missed his head and then crashed through the side of a passing car. The street was clear five minutes after the 1 o'clock whistle blew, the mob having returned to their work.

THE CARPENTERS' STRIKE AT ST. LOUIS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, April 8.—The master builders Saturday night renewed their offer to the striking carpenters, but declared they would not recognize the Union. Yesterday 1,500 striking carpenters decided to refuse the terms offered unless the builders recognize the Union.

SOME RECENT DISASTROUS FIRES.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 8.—About 9 o'clock last night a disastrous fire broke out at Baldwinsville and swept out the Alden block, between the Upson block and the Canal, on Bridge-street. The fire originated in the back part of the store occupied by C. Warner & Company. The block contained the stores of C. Warner & Company, dry goods; W. A. Bronson, boots and shoes; N. B. Brooks, saloon; S. C. Suydam, drugs and jewelry; E. L. Bisdee, meat market; United States Express Company; and Miss McDonald's dress making establishment. The loss will aggregate about $45,000; fully covered by insurance. About 3 o'clock, this morning, the fire broke out afresh in the Upson block, burning out the upper floors; the clothing stores of J. W. Upson, grocery store of W. H. Tappan, and billiard room of J. E. Glover being deluged by water. Loss covered by insurance.

IN FAVOR OF SCRIP LOCATIONS.

Decision by Register and Receiver of a Land Office in Michigan.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

MARQUETTE, Mich., April 8.—The Register and Receiver of the Land Office for this district have decided in favor of the scrip locations on the lands within the indemnity limits of the old Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagan Railroad grant, recently declared forfeited, as against the homestead and pre-emption settlers, who claimed the lands in dispute by virtue of actual entry thereon, as soon as they were thrown open to entry, as against the scrippers, who had previously applied for the lands.

"London Times" May Not Survive.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, April 8.—The Post's London special says there is some question as to whether the Times will be able to survive the consequences of the Parnell case.

DERAILED BY A DEFECTIVE SWITCH.

One Railroad Passenger Killed and Many Others Severely or Slightly Injured.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, April 8.—A defective switch derailed a passenger train on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad between Colehour and South Chicago, yesterday. The casualties are as follows: James Hanna, of Smith's Basin, N. Y., had an iron rod thrust through his head and died shortly afterward. Henry Houk, a farmer, of Adamsville, Ia., had a leg broken in two places and received internal injuries. Among others severely bruised and cut were: Frank Shelton, of Smiths Basin, N. Y.; John H. MacDonald, of Antigonish, N. S.; B. O. Rambo, Sheely, Ohio; H. Straley, Cleveland, O.; Mrs. John E. Wood, Alexander Wood, Cuba, N. Y., and A. Berschig, Cleveland. None of these are fatally injured. Several other men were slightly cut and shaken up but went away without reporting. Those severely hurt were sent to St. Luke's Hospital.

CRASH IN VIRGINIA.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WEST POINT, Va., April 8.—A fatal wreck occurred on the York River branch of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, two miles above this place about 9 o'clock Saturday night. The heavy rains of Saturday washed out a culvert and a part of the dam between the tank pond and the River and an engine and seven freight cars plunged into the wash-out. Two men, a colored brakeman, and the fireman, a young man named Durvin, were buried under the cars and killed. Engineer Lynch was terribly scalded, but managed to crawl out of the wreck.

The General Has Been Notified to Leave Belgium by Authorities.

By Cable to The Freeman.

WHEN TRIAL WILL BEGIN.

By Cable to The Freeman.

PARIS, April 8.—The Senate will hold its first session as a tribunal for the trial of General Boulanger on Friday next.

By Telegraph to The Freeman

The examination will be held in Washington, Detroit, Chicago, New-York and Boston. The salary is $1,000 per annum.

Quiet Day at White House.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The President enjoyed a quiet time this morning, and with the exception of Senators Morrill, Sherman and Voorhees, denied himself to all callers on business. The three Senators named called by appointment. At 1 o'clock the President went down to the East room and received several hundred persons who desired to pay their respects.

Suicide in Easton, Pa.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

EASTON, Pa., April 8.—Jacob Sandt, Eminent Commander of the Hugh DePayn Commandery, Knights Templar, committed suicide this morning by hanging. The act is believed to have been due to melancholy over the return of an old illness. He was one of Easton's most respected citizens.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The President to-day granted a pardon in the case of William Woods, convicted in November last of murder in Arkansas, and sentenced to be hanged April 19. He also granted a respite till June 21 in the case of Henry W. Miller, convicted of complicity in the same crime.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Leading Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, April 8.—The stock market opened weak with moderately active trading, first prices being from ¼ to ½ per cent. lower than Saturday's closing figures, Jersey Central showing the largest loss. Atchison, Missouri Pacific, Union Pacific and North-Western were the most active stocks with a fair business in a half-dozen others, while the general list was dull. At 11 o'clock the market was quiet and steady.

A LIFE IN THE BALANCE.

Connecticut has had so many murders of women for which nobody was punished, that when one of the murderers has been caught and convicted, it is a little provoking that he cannot be hanged promptly on time and without difficulty. John L. Swift committed one of the cruelest and most cold-blooded murders in Connecticut's long and rapidly growing list. He had been forced into marriage with a modest, respectable girl whom he had duped, and immediately deserted her without contributing a dollar to her support. As soon as she was able she returned to the factory to earn a livelihood, while Swift went on a prolonged debauch with an abandoned woman. Returning from this, he hunted up his wife and demanded money. This she refused. He immediately plotted her murder. He publicly boasted of his intention, and even invited some of his companions to be upon the street at a certain time and see him shoot her. The crime was deliberately executed. He saw her upon the street as she was passing between the factory and her boarding house, came up behind her and shot her dead. He was tried, convicted and sentenced to be hanged on Friday last. The case went to the Board of Pardons for a commutation, but without effect. Then the friends of Swift took advantage of the meeting of the Legislature, a large body of emotional and sympathetic men, every one of whom was appealed to personally by a sister of the condemned man, to not let her brother die. The Judiciary Committee recommended a commutation to life imprisonment, and both houses passed a resolution to that effect. The act reached the Governor on Tuesday last, and the constitution gives him three days in which to decide upon a measure, whether to approve or veto it. Had he taken the whole three days the time for the execution would have arrived and Swift would have been hanged. Had he waited until Thursday night and vetoed the bill the Legislature would not have had time to pass it over his veto. In this dilemma the Governor took the only action that was fair and rational. He promptly vetoed the bill and then reprieved the murderer for thirteen days. The Senate immediately passed the bill over the veto, but at last advices the House had not acted upon it. It requires only a majority vote in Connecticut to pass a bill over the Governor's veto, but it is hoped the the delay will enable the Representatives to hear from their constituents. The people of Connecticut believe with great unanimity that Swift ought to be hanged. They have become tired of the horrible carnival of woman murder, and are unwilling to put a premium upon the Swift method of getting rid of a wife, by going on a big debauch and producing a mental and physical condition which would sustain the plea of moral insanity.

Swift is well connected, and has influential friends who would gladly save his neck. But it is for the Legislature to determine whether the life of a woman is of more value in Connecticut than that of a chicken. The state should hasten to make its own atonement, as far as possible, for the murders of Mary Stannard, Jennie Cramer, Rose Ambler and Mattie Randall by punishing Swift—one murderer out of five.

THE WAYS OF ORGANIZED LABOR.

In February last an attempt was made to blow up Stevenson's brewery, located at Fortieth street and Tenth avenue, New York. A bomb was exploded in the front area, knocking a big hole in the foundation wall and shattering the windows of several tenements on the opposite side of the street. Stevenson had had trouble with the workingmen. He had paid the Union scale of wages, but refused to recognize the authority of the Union, and his place had been under boycott for a long time.

Detectives have been on the track of the criminals since the explosion took place, and on Sunday arrested John O'Connell, Thomas Riordan and Patrick S. Close. These are all officers of the Ale and Porter Brewery Employes' Protective Association. They were arrested on information furnished by Henry A. Fitzgerald, who had become dissatisfied with his treatment by the Association. The information that he gives is very interesting.

When the boycott was declared the three arrested men, Fitzgerald, and another who is sick, were appointed a committee to deal with the brewery. At its first meeting the committee resolved to send men to Stevenson for employment who would befoul the beer and ruin his trade. This plan failed because the men were refused employment. Then an appropriation of $50 was voted for the purchase of dynamite to blow up the building. A manufacturer of explosives was visited and negotiations entered into. Soon after this the committee got into a quarrel and Fitzgerald resigned. This was late in December. The explosion took place February 8th. One evening last week two of Byrnes's detectives attended a labor meeting in disguise, and heard O'Connell remark facetiously that it was one thing to blow up a brewery and another thing to prove it. The detectives and Fitzgerald went before the grand jury last Friday, and indictments were found against the three persons who were subsequently arrested. Printed circulars containing minute directions in regard to the boycott of Stevenson's brewery have been found upon them.

The Ale and Porter Brewery Employes' Protective Association claims to be a representative labor organization. This fact will make the trial of the miscreants a matter of general and exciting interest. The country wishes to know whether dynamite has become one of the agencies for enforcing the demands of "organized labor."

A DIVERSION OF EMIGRATION.

European emigration to the United States is perceptibly falling off. During the month of February, 1889, the total arrivals of immigrants at our ports were 13,317, against 19,454 during February, 1888. The falling off of Italian immigration was from 2,708 to 702 in the same months. Almost every nationality showed a corresponding reduction.

The cause of this decline is clearly traceable to the strong inducements held out to emigrants by the South American States. No terms so liberal were ever offered by the United States. The land is made practically free to actual settlers, seed is provided, and many other little aids are contributed to make the immigrant comfortable during the first year. In addition to these, Brazil actually furnishes each new-comer with free transportation and board and lodging for fifteen days after landing. Those who come are delighted with the climate and soil, and not displeased to find civilization much nearer a level with their own than in the United States. Their opportunities to "grow up with the country" are enhanced rather than hindered by this fact. There is no obstacle to their becoming leaders in politics, business and society, as the Scandinavians and Germans have become such in some of our Northwestern states.

There is an immense amount of room in the Western hemisphere for the crowded populations of Europe, and it is high time that the tide is diverted in directions away from the United States. We have received so many and find it so difficult to absorb and assimilate them as fast as they come, that it is an actual relief to see this falling off. Forty years ago we welcomed all who came, and the few criminals and paupers who mixed with the crowd gave us no uneasiness. Quite frequently the man who had been a beggar or depredator in Europe became an industrious and honest citizen here, because there was abundant opportunity for him to work. The conditions are so changed now that even the most industrious and useful have a hard time in finding employment, while the imported pauper or thief sees no inducement to change his life. So we find it necessary to shut out the very emigrants to whom South America is throwing wide open its doors. This will give larger room and better opportunity for those already here, as well as for our own native workingmen.

The Western continent will be greater, more powerful and more thoroughly united in the interests of civilization and progress with the population evenly distributed throughout the different nations than by permitting it to become uncomfortably congested in the United States. Brazil alone should be able to support a population as large as that of the United States at present, but it has less than four inhabitants to the square mile. The Argentine Republic, with one-fourth the area of the United States, has only one twenty-fifth our population. The entire area of South America, 7,500,000 square miles, supports less than 30,000,000 people. This is less than half the population of the United States upon an area (not including Alaska) of 3,034,455 square miles.

THE FIRST CONGRESS.

The Counting of the Votes for President One Hundred Years Ago.

[From the New York Sun.]

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The 6th of April, 1789, was a memorable day in our history, although its hundredth anniversary passes without official recognition of any kind. On that day the First Congress for the first time obtained a quorum in both branches, and in its presence the votes for the first President were opened, counted, and declared. The Constitution as it then existed expressly declared that on the opening and counting of the certificates of the electors, "the person having the greatest number of votes shall be the President." The taking of the prescribed oath was to be a preliminary to "the execution of his office" after this official declaration.

Why April 6 should have taken the place of March 4 in this final act of the election of the first President must always be the cause of some wonder, although the facts are well enough known. To begin with, that was the era of the stage coach, not of steam travel, and the roads had been bad. The mails from New York, the seat of government, to Philadelphia were in those days semi-weekly, and then tri-weekly as summer came on. But this will not wholly account for the fact that the first Congress called together for Wednesday, March 4, did not get a quorum until four weeks later, Wednesday, April 4, and the Senate not till Monday, April 6. The truth is that the closing months of the old Union, whose termination, or transformation rather, had been in prospect for a year and a half, had given the Continental Congress loose habits of attendance and legislation. After declaring the independence of the colonies and successfully conducting a long war, during which it had raised and supported large armies and founded a new nation, that body had dwindled away in the autumn and winter of 1788 so quietly that the date of its actual demise is not agreed upon. It was often, at the end, without a quorum. There was also a carious reluctance in some quarters to make the final plunge into the new system, and even New York did not choose electors for the first President, although by a close vote it had ratified the Constitution, and with ten other states had entered into the new Union. Whatever the relation of physical to other obstacles on that 4th of March which had been greeted in New York, the capital, with the firing of cannon and the ringing of bells, only eight members presented themselves in the Senate and thirteen in the House. During the subsequent weeks these bodies occupied themselves with the monotonous duty of adjourning from day to day, meanwhile sending out circulars urging the absent members to come forward. It is noticeable that although the Senate was much nearer its quorum at the start, having eight out of twenty-two members, the House, which only had thirteen out of fifty-nine, was first to secure its organization. It was able to choose a Speaker and Clerk on the 1st of April, and then proceed to business.

When it did get together this First Congress was found to contain many well-known and able men. New Hampshire sent Nicholas Gilman to the House. Massachusetts had a strong delegation led by Fisher Ames, George Thacher, Theodore Sedgwick and Elbridge Gerry. Connecticut sent Jonathan Trumbull, Jeremiah Wadsworth and Roger Sherman. New York had present Egbert Benson, John Lawrence and William Floyd. Pennsylvania contributed among others George Clymer, Thomas Fitzsimmons, and Peter and Frederick A. Muhlenburg—the last named the first Speaker of the House. New Jersey sent Elias Boudinot, who was once President of the Continental Congress. Delaware was represented by Vining, and Maryland by Daniel Carroll. The chief Representative from Virginia was James Madison. North Carolina like Rhode Island was unrepresented. Among the members from South Carolina was Gen. Sumter, the renowned partisan leader, while Baldwin and Jackson went from Georgia. Many of the members had sat in the old Congress, and probably their familiarity with its later habits of dilatoriness had much to do with the delay in organizing the new government.

The Senate was conspicuously a collection of well-known men. It included Gov. John Langdon of New Hampshire, elected its President for the purpose of counting the votes; Caleb Strong, of Massachusetts, Oliver Ellsworth and W. S. Johnson of Connecticut, Philip Schuyler and Rufus King of New York, William Paterson of New Jersey, Robert Morris of Pennsylvania, George Read of Delaware, Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Maryland, Richard H. Lee of Virginia, Ralph Izard and Pierce Butler of South Carolina, and William Few of Georgia.

When the votes were opened before the Senate and House on that memorable 6th of April, by John Langdon, it was found that the entire sixty-nine had been thrown for Washington as President. Of the second series of votes to determine the Vice-President, John Adams had thirty-four; John Jay, nine; R. H. Harrison, then Chief Justice of Maryland, and John Rutledge of South Carolina, six each; John Hancock four; George Clinton, three; Samuel Huntingdon of Connecticut and John Milton of Georgia, two each; James Armstrong and Edward Telfair, each of Georgia, and Gen. Benjamin Lincoln of Massachusetts, one each. Adams was therefore declared elected. To conclude these ceremonies, a committee consisting of Messrs. Paterson, Johnson, Lee and Ellsworth prepared a certificate of election, which Langdon signed and sealed, and then the following letter was despatched:

NEW YORK, April 6, 1789.

SIR—I have the honor to transmit to your Excellency the information of your unanimous election to the office of President of the United States of America. Suffer me, sir, to indulge the hope that so auspicious a mark of public confidence will meet your approbation, and be considered as a sure pledge of the affection and support you are to expect from a free and enlightened people.

I am, sir, with sentiments of respect, your obedient, humble servant, JOHN LANGDON.

To his Ex'cy George Washington, esq.

This wound up that portion of the duties of that famous day. Langdon promptly sent off his letters by special messengers to Washington and Adams informing them of their election. Mr. Thomson started from New York for Mt. Vernon the next day, April 7, and arrived there a week later.

My boy [three years old] was recently taken with cold in the head. It seemed finally to settle in his nose, which was stopped up for days and nights so that it was difficult for him to breathe and sleep. I called a physician, who prescribed, but did him no good. Finally I went to the drug store and got a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. It seemed to work like magic. The boy's nose was clear in two days, and he has been all right ever since.—E. J. Hazzard, New-York.

A LIFE IN THE BALANCE.

Connecticut has had so many murders of women for which nobody was punished, that when one of the murderers has been caught and convicted, it is a little provoking that he cannot be hanged promptly on time and without difficulty. John L. Swift committed one of the cruelest and most cold-blooded murders in Connecticut's long and rapidly growing list. He had been forced into marriage with a modest, respectable girl whom he had duped, and immediately deserted her without contributing a dollar to her support. As soon as she was able she returned to the factory to earn a livelihood, while Swift went on a prolonged debauch with an abandoned woman. Returning from this, he hunted up his wife and demanded money. This she refused. He immediately plotted her murder. He publicly boasted of his intention, and even invited some of his companions to be upon the street at a certain time and see him shoot her. The crime was deliberately executed. He saw her upon the street as she was passing between the factory and her boarding house, came up behind her and shot her dead. He was tried, convicted and sentenced to be hanged on Friday last. The case went to the Board of Pardons for a commutation, but without effect. Then the friends of Swift took advantage of the meeting of the Legislature, a large body of emotional and sympathetic men, every one of whom was appealed to personally by a sister of the condemned man, to not let her brother die. The Judiciary Committee recommended a commutation to life imprisonment, and both houses passed a resolution to that effect. The act reached the Governor on Tuesday last, and the constitution gives him three days in which to decide upon a measure, whether to approve or veto it. Had he taken the whole three days the time for the execution would have arrived and Swift would have been hanged. Had he waited until Thursday night and vetoed the bill the Legislature would not have had time to pass it over his veto. In this dilemma the Governor took the only action that was fair and rational. He promptly vetoed the bill and then reprieved the murderer for thirteen days. The Senate immediately passed the bill over the veto, but at last advices the House had not acted upon it. It requires only a majority vote in Connecticut to pass a bill over the Governor's veto, but it is hoped the the delay will enable the Representatives to hear from their constituents. The people of Connecticut believe with great unanimity that Swift ought to be hanged. They have become tired of the horrible carnival of woman murder, and are unwilling to put a premium upon the Swift method of getting rid of a wife, by going on a big debauch and producing a mental and physical condition which would sustain the plea of moral insanity.

Swift is well connected, and has influential friends who would gladly save his neck. But it is for the Legislature to determine whether the life of a woman is of more value in Connecticut than that of a chicken. The state should hasten to make its own atonement, as far as possible, for the murders of Mary Stannard, Jennie Cramer, Rose Ambler and Mattie Randall by punishing Swift—one murderer out of five.

THE WAYS OF ORGANIZED LABOR.

In February last an attempt was made to blow up Stevenson's brewery, located at Fortieth street and Tenth avenue, New York. A bomb was exploded in the front area, knocking a big hole in the foundation wall and shattering the windows of several tenements on the opposite side of the street. Stevenson had had trouble with the workingmen. He had paid the Union scale of wages, but refused to recognize the authority of the Union, and his place had been under boycott for a long time.

Detectives have been on the track of the criminals since the explosion took place, and on Sunday arrested John O'Connell, Thomas Riordan and Patrick S. Close. These are all officers of the Ale and Porter Brewery Employes' Protective Association. They were arrested on information furnished by Henry A. Fitzgerald, who had become dissatisfied with his treatment by the Association. The information that he gives is very interesting.

When the boycott was declared the three arrested men, Fitzgerald, and another who is sick, were appointed a committee to deal with the brewery. At its first meeting the committee resolved to send men to Stevenson for employment who would befoul the beer and ruin his trade. This plan failed because the men were refused employment. Then an appropriation of $50 was voted for the purchase of dynamite to blow up the building. A manufacturer of explosives was visited and negotiations entered into. Soon after this the committee got into a quarrel and Fitzgerald resigned. This was late in December. The explosion took place February 8th. One evening last week two of Byrnes's detectives attended a labor meeting in disguise, and heard O'Connell remark facetiously that it was one thing to blow up a brewery and another thing to prove it. The detectives and Fitzgerald went before the grand jury last Friday, and indictments were found against the three persons who were subsequently arrested. Printed circulars containing minute directions in regard to the boycott of Stevenson's brewery have been found upon them.

The Ale and Porter Brewery Employes' Protective Association claims to be a representative labor organization. This fact will make the trial of the miscreants a matter of general and exciting interest. The country wishes to know whether dynamite has become one of the agencies for enforcing the demands of "organized labor."

A DIVERSION OF EMIGRATION.

European emigration to the United States is perceptibly falling off. During the month of February, 1889, the total arrivals of immigrants at our ports were 13,317, against 19,454 during February, 1888. The falling off of Italian immigration was from 2,708 to 702 in the same months. Almost every nationality showed a corresponding reduction.

The cause of this decline is clearly traceable to the strong inducements held out to emigrants by the South American States. No terms so liberal were ever offered by the United States. The land is made practically free to actual settlers, seed is provided, and many other little aids are contributed to make the immigrant comfortable during the first year. In addition to these, Brazil actually furnishes each new-comer with free transportation and board and lodging for fifteen days after landing. Those who come are delighted with the climate and soil, and not displeased to find civilization much nearer a level with their own than in the United States. Their opportunities to "grow up with the country" are enhanced rather than hindered by this fact. There is no obstacle to their becoming leaders in politics, business and society, as the Scandinavians and Germans have become such in some of our Northwestern states.

There is an immense amount of room in the Western hemisphere for the crowded populations of Europe, and it is high time that the tide is diverted in directions away from the United States. We have received so many and find it so difficult to absorb and assimilate them as fast as they come, that it is an actual relief to see this falling off. Forty years ago we welcomed all who came, and the few criminals and paupers who mixed with the crowd gave us no uneasiness. Quite frequently the man who had been a beggar or depredator in Europe became an industrious and honest citizen here, because there was abundant opportunity for him to work. The conditions are so changed now that even the most industrious and useful have a hard time in finding employment, while the imported pauper or thief sees no inducement to change his life. So we find it necessary to shut out the very emigrants to whom South America is throwing wide open its doors. This will give larger room and better opportunity for those already here, as well as for our own native workingmen.

The Western continent will be greater, more powerful and more thoroughly united in the interests of civilization and progress with the population evenly distributed throughout the different nations than by permitting it to become uncomfortably congested in the United States. Brazil alone should be able to support a population as large as that of the United States at present, but it has less than four inhabitants to the square mile. The Argentine Republic, with one-fourth the area of the United States, has only one twenty-fifth our population. The entire area of South America, 7,500,000 square miles, supports less than 30,000,000 people. This is less than half the population of the United States upon an area (not including Alaska) of 3,034,455 square miles.

THE FIRST CONGRESS.

The Counting of the Votes for President One Hundred Years Ago.

[From the New York Sun.]

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The 6th of April, 1789, was a memorable day in our history, although its hundredth anniversary passes without official recognition of any kind. On that day the First Congress for the first time obtained a quorum in both branches, and in its presence the votes for the first President were opened, counted, and declared. The Constitution as it then existed expressly declared that on the opening and counting of the certificates of the electors, "the person having the greatest number of votes shall be the President." The taking of the prescribed oath was to be a preliminary to "the execution of his office" after this official declaration.

Why April 6 should have taken the place of March 4 in this final act of the election of the first President must always be the cause of some wonder, although the facts are well enough known. To begin with, that was the era of the stage coach, not of steam travel, and the roads had been bad. The mails from New York, the seat of government, to Philadelphia were in those days semi-weekly, and then tri-weekly as summer came on. But this will not wholly account for the fact that the first Congress called together for Wednesday, March 4, did not get a quorum until four weeks later, Wednesday, April 4, and the Senate not till Monday, April 6. The truth is that the closing months of the old Union, whose termination, or transformation rather, had been in prospect for a year and a half, had given the Continental Congress loose habits of attendance and legislation. After declaring the independence of the colonies and successfully conducting a long war, during which it had raised and supported large armies and founded a new nation, that body had dwindled away in the autumn and winter of 1788 so quietly that the date of its actual demise is not agreed upon. It was often, at the end, without a quorum. There was also a carious reluctance in some quarters to make the final plunge into the new system, and even New York did not choose electors for the first President, although by a close vote it had ratified the Constitution, and with ten other states had entered into the new Union. Whatever the relation of physical to other obstacles on that 4th of March which had been greeted in New York, the capital, with the firing of cannon and the ringing of bells, only eight members presented themselves in the Senate and thirteen in the House. During the subsequent weeks these bodies occupied themselves with the monotonous duty of adjourning from day to day, meanwhile sending out circulars urging the absent members to come forward. It is noticeable that although the Senate was much nearer its quorum at the start, having eight out of twenty-two members, the House, which only had thirteen out of fifty-nine, was first to secure its organization. It was able to choose a Speaker and Clerk on the 1st of April, and then proceed to business.

When it did get together this First Congress was found to contain many well-known and able men. New Hampshire sent Nicholas Gilman to the House. Massachusetts had a strong delegation led by Fisher Ames, George Thacher, Theodore Sedgwick and Elbridge Gerry. Connecticut sent Jonathan Trumbull, Jeremiah Wadsworth and Roger Sherman. New York had present Egbert Benson, John Lawrence and William Floyd. Pennsylvania contributed among others George Clymer, Thomas Fitzsimmons, and Peter and Frederick A. Muhlenburg—the last named the first Speaker of the House. New Jersey sent Elias Boudinot, who was once President of the Continental Congress. Delaware was represented by Vining, and Maryland by Daniel Carroll. The chief Representative from Virginia was James Madison. North Carolina like Rhode Island was unrepresented. Among the members from South Carolina was Gen. Sumter, the renowned partisan leader, while Baldwin and Jackson went from Georgia. Many of the members had sat in the old Congress, and probably their familiarity with its later habits of dilatoriness had much to do with the delay in organizing the new government.

The Senate was conspicuously a collection of well-known men. It included Gov. John Langdon of New Hampshire, elected its President for the purpose of counting the votes; Caleb Strong, of Massachusetts, Oliver Ellsworth and W. S. Johnson of Connecticut, Philip Schuyler and Rufus King of New York, William Paterson of New Jersey, Robert Morris of Pennsylvania, George Read of Delaware, Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Maryland, Richard H. Lee of Virginia, Ralph Izard and Pierce Butler of South Carolina, and William Few of Georgia.

When the votes were opened before the Senate and House on that memorable 6th of April, by John Langdon, it was found that the entire sixty-nine had been thrown for Washington as President. Of the second series of votes to determine the Vice-President, John Adams had thirty-four; John Jay, nine; R. H. Harrison, then Chief Justice of Maryland, and John Rutledge of South Carolina, six each; John Hancock four; George Clinton, three; Samuel Huntingdon of Connecticut and John Milton of Georgia, two each; James Armstrong and Edward Telfair, each of Georgia, and Gen. Benjamin Lincoln of Massachusetts, one each. Adams was therefore declared elected. To conclude these ceremonies, a committee consisting of Messrs. Paterson, Johnson, Lee and Ellsworth prepared a certificate of election, which Langdon signed and sealed, and then the following letter was despatched:

NEW YORK, April 6, 1789.

SIR—I have the honor to transmit to your Excellency the information of your unanimous election to the office of President of the United States of America. Suffer me, sir, to indulge the hope that so auspicious a mark of public confidence will meet your approbation, and be considered as a sure pledge of the affection and support you are to expect from a free and enlightened people.

I am, sir, with sentiments of respect, your obedient, humble servant, JOHN LANGDON.

To his Ex'cy George Washington, esq.

This wound up that portion of the duties of that famous day. Langdon promptly sent off his letters by special messengers to Washington and Adams informing them of their election. Mr. Thomson started from New York for Mt. Vernon the next day, April 7, and arrived there a week later.

The necessity of a spring medicine is almost universally admitted. And the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla for this purpose becomes more and more widely known every year. My boy [three years old] was recently taken with cold in the head. It seemed finally to settle in his nose, which was stopped up for days and nights so that it was difficult for him to breathe and sleep. I called a physician, who prescribed, but did him no good. Finally I went to the drug store and got a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. It seemed to work like magic. The boy's nose was clear in two days, and he has been all right ever since.—E. J. Hazzard, New-York.

★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulities, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my little daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend he Favorite Remedy. It was

and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

Mrs. Laura A. Kempton, West Rutland, Vermont.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

AGENTS WHO ARE PUZZLED

OVER RATES FOR GRAIN ON ACCOUNT INTER-STATE LAW.

Negligence of the Chinese Government Reported in Not Helping Famine Sufferers—World's Conference of Mormons—Other News.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The agents of the railroad propeller lines are a badly puzzled lot of men. Their way of doing business for two years has been by the amendments of the Inter-State Commerce law of March 2, and with the season upon them they know not what to do. They have given, ever since they were established through bills of lading to the seaboard and to Liverpool on the grain they carried. Their rates, lake and rail, as they were technically called, were on a sliding scale to correspond with the fluctuations in Lake grain freights to Buffalo, with their advantages in giving through bills of lading whereby shippers escaped Buffalo charges, the propeller lines were always at an advantage over outside or tramp boats. They made rates to give their steamers cargoes, which varied from day to day, as lake grain freights happened to be. All this is now changed. The amendments to the Inter-State commerce law provide that five days' notice shall be given of reduction in through lake and rail rates, and 10 days' notice of an advance. If rates go down it will be five days before they can take grain on through shipment, because the shippers will, of course, all go to the outside boats and have the grain handled at Buffalo. If rates go up it will be 10 days before the lines can profit by the advance, and in that time enough freight will be forced on them to fill their boats for a month.

MISSIONARIES AIDING DISTRESS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—The North China News, referring to the negligence of the Chinese Government in leaving to foreign missionaries the relief of the starving people in the Northern Provinces, says: "Almost the whole missionary staff in the two famine districts is engaged in the work of relief and yet they report that they are only able to touch the fringe of distress. This can be averted for a time at the expense of something less than half a penny a head a day and there is no permanence in it. Every bit of this work should be done by the Chinese Government. In the great famine of 12 years ago there was some excuse for the people being allowed to starve, for the districts afflicted were practically inaccessible. There is no such excuse now, the famine districts being pefectly accessible. There is plenty of food in the country. Ship loads of grain are going away every day from Anhui and Kiangsu to the south in the ordinary course of trade, but not one load goes on government account to the famine districts."

WORLD'S CONFERENCE OF MORMOMS.

Largest Assembly of Latter Day Saints Ever Held in this Country.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 8.—The world's conference of Latter Day Saints, which convened here yesterday, is the largest assembly of Mormom representatives ever held in this country. The preliminary proceedings of Saturday were attended by over 500 delegates. Every train yesterday brought in additional delegates, and last night there were over 1,000 of them in the City, England having a stronger representation than any other foreign country except Canada. Australia has eight representatives. Much feeling is manifested in the affairs of the Mormon Church in Utah. The statehood claims of the Territory will be put in shape for presentation to Congress at Washington. A communication from the Mormon General Conference, now in Session at Salt Lake, will be read at to-day's session.

THE STEALINGS OF CASHIER PRATT

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ANOKA, Minn., April 8.—Nothing further is known of the whereabouts of the absconding cashier, Pratt. As near as can be learned now the amount of his stealings is $35,000 from Mrs. Nell, $45,000 from St. Paul and Minneapolis correspondents of the bank and $25,000 raised by the sale of his own and other people's stock. New-York and Chicago correspondents of the bank are yet to be heard from. Mrs. Nell, who is nearly 80 years old, has always trusted Pratt as a son, and left the management of her affairs almost entirely in his hands. She can hardly believe he has robbed her, and attributes all his trouble to the "woman in the case."

Female Swindler.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., April 8.—Miss Ella White, an Elmira music teacher, was arrested here this morning by Chief Little, of Elmira, for defrauding various people in that City out of sums aggregating $15,000 on fictitious mining and silk mill stocks and other pretenses. She confessed that she lost the money in an Elmira bucket shop. She waived a requisition.

Schooner and Steamer Collide.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, April 8.—The British schooner Carrie Dingle was sunk yesterday in a collision with the steamer Nordland, which sailed from Antwerp April 6, for New-York. The Nordland's bow was stove. It is at Southampton, where it will discharge its cargo for repairs. No lives were lost.

American Pilgrims at Jaffa.

By Cable to The Freeman.

JAFFA, April 8.—The party of American Catholic pilgrims reached here yesterday from Ismailia. The pilgrims proceeded at once toward Jerusalem. They will return to this port on their way home.

SHERIDAN'S "PERSONAL MEMOIRS."

An Odd Experience for Military Men—To Prevent Scurvy.

General P. H. Sheridan, in his "Personal Memoirs," relates that when he was commissioned Brevet Second Lieutenant, upon leaving West Point, he was sent to Fort Duncan, a military post on the Rio Grande River. On the route he stopped at Laredo, Texas. The troops there had made a redoubt for the defense of the post. The parapet was built of saud, the only material about Laredo which could be obtained for its construction. A wind storm, known as a "Norther," blew the work entirely away. This was rather an odd experience for military men. The wind in that part of the country would certainly have been an important factor during a battle. While at Fort Duncan it was next to impossible to secure vegetables. The author writes: "So, during all the period I lived at Fort Duncan and its sub-camps, nearly 16 months, fresh vegetables were practically unobtainable. To prevent scurvy we used the juice of the maguey plant, called pluque, and to obtain a supply of this antiscorbutic, I was often detailed to march the company out about 40 miles, cut the plant, load up two or three wagons with the stalks and carry them to camp. Here the juice was extracted by a rude press and put in bottles until it fermented and became worse in odor than sulphureted hydrogen. At reveille roll call every morning, this fermented liquor was dealt out to the men of the company, and as it was my duty, in my capacity of subaltern, to attend these roll calls and see that the men took their ration of pulque, I always began the duty by drinking a cup of the repulsive stuff myself. Though hard to swallow, its well known specific qualities in the prevention and cure of scurvy were familiar to all, so every man in the command gulped down his share notwithstanding its vile taste and odor."

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

A SCRAP OF PAPER SAVES HER LIFE.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than 70 pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery Free at VanDeusen's, Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston, drug store.

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cent. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

ARE YOU MADE miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. Sold by Freder ck J. R. Clark.

TRUTH IS TOUGH.

Does not Mr. Bryant say that "Truth will get well if she is run over by a locomotive, while error dies of lockjaw if she scratches her finger." The truth about Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will be found hard to suppress. All who take them find them gentle in their action but true in their work. Don't be afraid of mercury or anything harmful in them. They are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills. These Pellets (Little Liver Pills) are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. They cure Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion and Bilious Attacks, 25 cents a vial, by Druggists.

"MY SON IS A SON 'TILL HE GETS HIM A WIFE but my Daughter is my Daughter all the days of her life." Both my son and my daughter took Little Hop Pills regularly. It regulates the bowels and always cures sick or bilious headache, indigestion and kindred ills. All druggists, 25 cents, or mail stamps to Hop Co., New London, Conn.

Harsh purgative remedies are fast giving way to the gentle action and mild effects of Carter's Little Liver Pills. If you try them, they will certainly please you.

HOW REPULSIVE

Is bad breath, and yet how many otherwise attractive, polite and particular people afflict their friends with the foul odor of their breath. If there was no remedy for this it might excite our sympathy, but as there is no need of having a foul breath, it is an unpardonable breach of good manners to obtrude such an offence on good society.

Foul breath arises from disordered digestion which can be corrected by using Sulphur Bitters, and the result will be a pure, sweet breath.

Humors run riot in the blood at this season. Hood's Sarsaparilla expels every impurity and vitalizes and enriches the blood.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the cause is of long standing or not, Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint? Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston.

PNEUMONIA, THE MOST DANGEROUS

of all acute attacks, prevented by the use of the great Hoxsie preparations. The greatest remedies in the world, for Lung and Throat Troubles. 25 cts.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—A positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria and Canker Mouth. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

In purchasing medicines, don't try experiments; the first and only consideration should be genuineness. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has stood the test of 40 years, and to-day it is in greater demand than ever a triumphant proof of popular approval.

WOULD YOU BELIEVE

The Proprietor of Kemp's Balsam gives thousanus of Bottles away yearly? This mode of advertising would prove ruinous if the Balsam was not a perfect cure for Coughs and all Throat and Lung troubles. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Don't hesitate! Procure a bottle to-day to keep in your home or room for immediate or future use. Trial bottle Free at all druggists'. Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy-cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. ★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulties, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my little daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend he Favorite Remedy. It was

and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

Mrs. Laura A. Kempton, West Rutland, Vermont.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

OVER RATES FOR GRAIN ON ACCOUNT INTER-STATE LAW.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The agents of the railroad propeller lines are a badly puzzled lot of men. Their way of doing business for two years has been by the amendments of the Inter-State Commerce law of March 2, and with the season upon them they know not what to do. They have given, ever since they were established through bills of lading to the seaboard and to Liverpool on the grain they carried. Their rates, lake and rail, as they were technically called, were on a sliding scale to correspond with the fluctuations in Lake grain freights to Buffalo, with their advantages in giving through bills of lading whereby shippers escaped Buffalo charges, the propeller lines were always at an advantage over outside or tramp boats. They made rates to give their steamers cargoes, which varied from day to day, as lake grain freights happened to be. All this is now changed. The amendments to the Inter-State commerce law provide that five days' notice shall be given of reduction in through lake and rail rates, and 10 days' notice of an advance. If rates go down it will be five days before they can take grain on through shipment, because the shippers will, of course, all go to the outside boats and have the grain handled at Buffalo. If rates go up it will be 10 days before the lines can profit by the advance, and in that time enough freight will be forced on them to fill their boats for a month.

MISSIONARIES AIDING DISTRESS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—The North China News, referring to the negligence of the Chinese Government in leaving to foreign missionaries the relief of the starving people in the Northern Provinces, says: "Almost the whole missionary staff in the two famine districts is engaged in the work of relief and yet they report that they are only able to touch the fringe of distress. This can be averted for a time at the expense of something less than half a penny a head a day and there is no permanence in it. Every bit of this work should be done by the Chinese Government. In the great famine of 12 years ago there was some excuse for the people being allowed to starve, for the districts afflicted were practically inaccessible. There is no such excuse now, the famine districts being pefectly accessible. There is plenty of food in the country. Ship loads of grain are going away every day from Anhui and Kiangsu to the south in the ordinary course of trade, but not one load goes on government account to the famine districts."

WORLD'S CONFERENCE OF MORMOMS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. JOSEPH, MO., April 8.—The world's conference of Latter Day Saints, which convened here yesterday, is the largest assembly of Mormom representatives ever held in this country. The preliminary proceedings of Saturday were attended by over 500 delegates. Every train yesterday brought in additional delegates, and last night there were over 1,000 of them in the City, England having a stronger representation than any other foreign country except Canada. Australia has eight representatives. Much feeling is manifested in the affairs of the Mormon Church in Utah. The statehood claims of the Territory will be put in shape for presentation to Congress at Washington. A communication from the Mormon General Conference, now in Session at Salt Lake, will be read at to-day's session.

THE STEALINGS OF CASHIER PRATT

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ANOKA, Minn., April 8.—Nothing further is known of the whereabouts of the absconding cashier, Pratt. As near as can be learned now the amount of his stealings is $35,000 from Mrs. Nell, $45,000 from St. Paul and Minneapolis correspondents of the bank and $25,000 raised by the sale of his own and other people's stock. New-York and Chicago correspondents of the bank are yet to be heard from. Mrs. Nell, who is nearly 80 years old, has always trusted Pratt as a son, and left the management of her affairs almost entirely in his hands. She can hardly believe he has robbed her, and attributes all his trouble to the "woman in the case."

Female Swindler.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., April 8.—Miss Ella White, an Elmira music teacher, was arrested here this morning by Chief Little, of Elmira, for defrauding various people in that City out of sums aggregating $15,000 on fictitious mining and silk mill stocks and other pretenses. SHERIDAN'S "PERSONAL MEMOIRS."

An Odd Experience for Military Men—To Prevent Scurvy.

Goneral P. H. Sheridan, in his "Personal Memoirs," relates that when he was commissioned Brevet Second Lieutenant, upon leaving West Point, he was sent to Fort Duncan, a military post on the Rio Grande River. On the route he stopped at Laredo, Texas. The troops there had made a redoubt for the defense of the post. The parapet was built of sand, the only material about Laredo which could be obtained for its construction. A wind storm, known as a "Norther," blew the work entirely away. This was rather an odd experience for military men. The wind in that part of the country would certainly have been an important factor during a battle. While at Fort Duncan it was next to impossible to secure vegetables. The author writes: "So, during all the period I lived at Fort Duncan and its sub-camps, nearly 16 months, fresh vegetables were practically unobtainable. To prevent scurvy we used the juice of the maguey plant, called pluque, and to obtain a supply of this antiscorbutic, I was often detailed to march the company out about 40 miles, cut the plant, load up two or three wagons with the stalks and carry them to camp. Here the juice was extracted by a rude press and put in bottles until it fermented and became worse in odor than sulphureted hydrogen. At reveille roll call every morning, this fermented liquor was dealt out to the men of the company, and as it was my duty, in my capacity of subaltern, to attend these roll calls and see that the men took their ration of pulque. I always began the duty by drinking a cup of the repulsive stuff myself. Though hard to swallow, its well known specific qualities in the prevention and cure of scurvy were familiar to all, so every man in the command gulped down his share notwithstanding its vile taste and odor."

SPECIAL BUSINESS NCTICES.

A SCRAP OF PAPER SAVES HER LIFE.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than 70 pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery Free at VanDeusen's, Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston, drug store.

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cent. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

ARE YOU MADE miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. Sold by Freder ck J. R. Clark.

TRUTH IS TOUGH.

Does not Mr. Bryant say that "Truth will get well if she is run over by a locomotive, while error dies of lockjaw if she scratches her finger." The truth about Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will be found hard to suppress. All who take them find them gentle in their action but true in their work. Don't be afraid of mercury or anything harmful in them. They are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills. These Pellets (Little Liver Pills) are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. They cure Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion and Bilious Attacks, 25 cents a vial, by Druggists.

"MY SON IS A SON 'TILL HE GETS HIM A WIFE but my Daughter is my Daughter all the days of her life." Both my son and my daughter took Little Hop Pills regularly. It regulates the bowels and always cures sick or bilious headache, indigestion and kindred ills. All druggists, 25 cents, or mail stamps to Hop Co., New London, Conn.

Harsh purgative remedies are fast giving way to the gentle action and mild effects of Carter's Little Liver Pills. If you try them, they will certainly please you.

HOW REPULSIVE

Is bad breath, and yet how many otherwise attractive, polite and particular people afflict their friends with the foul odor of their breath. If there was no remedy for this it might excite our sympathy, but as there is no need of having a foul breath, it is an unpardonable breach of good manners to obtrude such an offence on good society.

Foul breath arises from disordered digestion which can be corrected by using Sulphur Bitters, and the result will be a pure, sweet breath.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the case is of long standing or not, Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

NOW IN SESSION IN THE ELIZABETH-STREET CHURCH, N. Y.

Superannuated Preachers Ordered on the Records of Conference—Young Men Examined for the Ministry—Address—Religious Work.

J. H. Lane, of West Stockbridge, Mass., who is well known in this City, is in New-York attending the M. E. Conference, which is in session in that City. He writes to THE FREEMAN as follows:

SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Following the opening of Conference on Saturday, the Rev. W. C. Smith, reported in the case of superannuated preachers addressed to the Conference. They were ordered on the records.

The Rev. W. F. Hatfield, D. D., moved that a Committee for Entertainment of the Conference be ordered, on the self-supporting plan, which was carried.

The Rev. J. H. Mendenhall, D. D., editor of the Methodist Review, made an address on the "Drift of Thought in this Age, Touching the View of Evangelical Religion." He stated that the great centers of education, Yale, Harvard and Andover, were in a large measure rational, and "we must meet it by a pure evangelical Methodistic literature."

A class of 11 young men were examined as to their call to the ministry and their view of Bible doctrines as Methodists. They were addessed on the work of the ministry, the doctrines of the church, etc. The examination of these candidates was taken up in open Conference, and the following were admitted in full membership: W. F. Anderson, E. S. Tipple, R. A. Brown, E. S. Miles, E. M. Knisken, I. J. Peritz, A. E. Lord, C. A. Holla, A. M. Gay. The following continued on trial: L. F. Piper, Eugene Griggs.

The Rev. J. S. Chadwick, the Secretary of the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society, addressed the Conference on the "Work of Education in the South."

The Rev. A. H. Gillet, D. D., Secretary of the Sunday School Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, next spoke.

PALM SUNDAY.

April 14 is Palm Sunday. It is especially observed in Catholic and Lutheran churches. In the Catholic Church palms, after being blessed, are received by parishioners. Those remaining in the church are burned and the ashes used on Ash Wednesday. In the Lutheran Church the event is considered one of the most important in Church holidays. Communion is usually celebrated and the services are of an impressive character. Interesting services are also held in Episcopal Churches.

CANDIDATES.

In the Spring-Street Lutheran Church, Rondout, last evening 29 candidates for confirmation were examined in the presence of a large assemblage, by the Rev. A. Schmidtkonz, Pastor of the Church. The pupils showed careful training, and the questions propounded were readily answered. On Sunday next the rite of confirmation will be administered, and the candidates taken in as members of the congregation.

An Afflicted Family.

Joseph Rightmeyer, of Ponckhockie, is passing through a siege of affliction. About four weeks ago his eldest daughter was taken ill with the mumps. When she had nearly recovered Mr. Rightmeyer was confined to the house by erysipelas. When he became convalescent his youngest daughter went on a visit to her grandmother in the Rondout Lighthouse. There she was taken ill with the mumps, and about the same time his eldest child was seized with the measles at home. Between measles, mumps and erysipelas, Mr. Rightmeyer says this life is not all a bed of roses.

Postal Clerks' Trials.

Postal clerks are frequently called upon to decipher hieroglyphics on letters and packages. The following, which was written on a letter received in the Rondout Post-Office, to-day, is a sample: "Groser Riever Beth Dutchis County, N. Y." One of the clerks said by "Groser Riever" was meant "large river" and "Beth" was Bath. The address properly was Bath-on-the-Hudson. In German "groser" is large.

Sale Postponed.

Goods which were recently levied on C. H. Betts' premises, Vineyard Point, by Deputy Sheriff Smith, of Kingston, under an execution of the Supreme Court in favor of a man named Mains, of Highland, this County, are still stored in Rondout. The articles were to have been sold to-day to satisfy a judgment held by Mains, but the sale was postponed until April 22.

Promised for Tuesday:

Slightly warmer, northerly winds.

MINOR NOTES AROUND THIS TOWN.

Facts, Fancies and Gossip Heard by Reporters Here This Day.

Bound to come by-and-by—warmer weather. It is only a question of time.

A cataract was successfully removed from one of the eyes of Dr. Hyman Rosa, of this City, by a New-York specialist one day recently.

A man crying at the top of his voice: "Two Irish songs for five cents," aroused the ire of Abeel-street, Rondout, residents yesterday. An officer was sent for to arrest the desecrator of the Sabbath, but the fellow hastily decamped when he learned what was going on.

It is stated that "many business men refrain from advertising in the newspapers. This is not because they do not believe in printers' ink, but because they do not know how successful advertising is conducted. Were this forte generally understood, we would see more successful business men. Those who know the secret prosper, while those in the dark in this respect are always wondering why their neighbors manage to do a good trade as compared with the stagnation of their own." An old journalist, who has made a thorough study of the subject, has recently given his experience in this direction through the columns of a Cincinnati journal. He says: "In selecting a medium and properly preparing the matter, consists the true secret of successful advertising. Having decided these two points, be persistent. Never change your medium, or you lose in a great measure all previous effort and expenditure. Open with a large, well-displayed advertisement, and continue for three or four insertions, then reduce to reasonable limits, and hold that steadily. If the medium is a journal that will likely be kept or bound, a notice in the reading matter, with address, etc., so that it will be bound in the volume, will be seed planted that will bear fruit years after it is sown." Such a newspaper is THE FREEMAN.

PROVED TO BE A FATAL ACCIDENT.

A Young German Struck on the Head by an Iron Tub.

On Saturday afternoon a young German named John Gelski, of Rondout, received a fatal injury while assisting to unload a boat of coal at the Newark Lime & Cement Company's Works, Ponckhockie. An iron tub, which weighs over 500 pounds and has a capacity of holding about half a ton of coal, slipped from the hook that held it and it fell with a crash. It struck the combing of the boat, glanced off, struck a workman named Patrick Scully on his right arm, inflicting a painful injury. Gelski was not so fortunate. The tub struck him in the back of the head. He fell unconscious in the heap of coal. He revived, however, in a short time, and he was taken to his home on Ann-street, where he died at about 6:15 o'clock in the evening of concussion of the brain. Coroner Carr was notified. He impanelled a jury, of which George Roach is foreman. After viewing the remains the inquest was adjourned until to-night.

There are conflicting stories as to how the accident occurred. One of them is that Michael O'Neil, who had charge of the lever on the engine which raised and lowered the tub, hoisted the tub so high that the handle came in contact with the block, which threw the hook out of the eye, thus causing the accident. Another statement made is that the tub struck a small car which is used to convey coal to a pocket, and in this way became detached from the hook.

The deceased was 19 years old. His father, who has been informed of his son's death, lives in Cleveland, Ohio.

KINGSTON MAN BECOMES INSANE.

Will be Taken to Middletown Asylum—Religious Fervor.

A man named George Wright, who has lived with Christopher J. Winne, of Kingston, ever since he was a boy, has become crazy. During the rivival in the St. James M. E. Church, this City, last winter, Wright became very much interested and made prayers and exhortations. His brain became affected by his religious fervor and he would stand for several hours at a time in the yard at Mr. Winne's house with his hands raised above his head. His friends tried to divert his attention to other subjects, but to no avail, and he continued to grow worse. It was finally decided to put him under restraint. He was taken to the Ulster County Jail and examined by Drs. E. H. Loughran and G. Basten. They pronounced him insane. He will be taken to the Middletown Asylum. While in jail Wright refused to touch food.

BIG BLAZE IN COLUMBIA COUNTY.

Several Buildings Destroyed—The Loss and Insurance.

A dispatch from Hudson to THE FREEMAN to-day, stated: About 2 o'clock this morning, fire was discovered issuing from Stuppleben's store, in the village of Ghent, and there being no fire engines or water available, the business portion of the village was soon in flames and burned to the ground. Hartigan's store and hotel, and Stuppleben's grocery with all the barns and sheds, were totally destroyed, the loss amounting to between $8,000 and $10,000, on which there was an insurance of $4,500.

Action of Health Board.

At the last meeting of the Board of Health of this City, Health Inspector TenBroeck reported the bad condition of the celler of the building on the corner of Union-avenue and Mill-street, Rondout. The Inspector was told to notify the owners of the property to remedy the evil. This morning the work of putting the celler into a state of good sanitary condition was begun.

Improvement.

The neat iron fences which have taken the place of old wooden ones, in front of residences on Spring-street, between Wurts and Hone-streets, Rondout, have added to the appearence of that thoroughfare.

What Fishermen Say.

Shad fisherman begin to believe the season will be as late as last year when it did not open here until May 1.

IN THE LAND OF FLOWERS.

FLORIDA, HUMAN NATURE, AND THE RECENT YELLOW FEVER.

Men who Cannot for the Life of Them See Why Nature Could Have Any but Refuse Material After Building Their Specific Paradise.

Happy the people who are so situated that they can escape the bleak and trying weather of Northern winters and springs and spend these seasons in the land of balmy breezes, mellow sunshine, where the trees are always green and where all nature smiles. And twice happy are the Northerners, who, when the early summer rolls around are free once more to return to the invigorating atmosphere of their own section. Last week the exodus of "Yankees" and in many instances natives from localities in Florida to the North was begun. Through a large portion of Florida the belief is generally entertained that the ravages of yellow fever this year will be much more severe than last, and it is a matter of regret that so much sectional jealousy is displayed by citizens of one locality as against the alleged disadvantages of other sections in Florida.

Jaunting hither and thither over Florida it does not take a Northern man long to be convinced of this fact: Florida people are hurtling Florida more than all the rest of the Southerners and all the "Yanks" who go south of Mason & Dixon's line put together do. Men of apparently broad and liberal views respecting almost any other subject, seem to be infected with the belief that theirs is the only particular spot wherein fever never has a foothold, and there only can life be endured and a residence be made pleasant and profitable. This illusion can probably be best accounted for by charitably surmising that these enthusiasts have never been in the best portions of other communities, and are so well pleased with their own that for the life of them they cannot see why Nature could have had any but refuse material after building their specific paradises. An expressed and contented admiration of one's own locality is highly laudable when it is not narrow gauged—either from ignorance or selfish motives—into philippics abusive of other sections.

As an illustration of this general observation, take, for instance, the cities of Jacksonville and St. Augustine. The latter shrieks in the same breath that it is the oldest City in America and that there was not a single case of yellow fever there last year. Jacksonville, 36 miles distant, was a hot-bed of the plague. Jacksonville retorts in kind, and the result is that both cities have been irreparably damaged for years to come. A similar statement is applicable to scores of towns and villages, all claiming to be health resorts, in the State. The bitterness and the extent of the villifications and outrageous lying of the past eight months have done much to nullify the persistent advertising, and the effect of the momentum imparted during so many years. Of late years it has been pointed out that various circumstances contributed to the gradual extension of the Florida season. When the advantages of the State as a winter home and sanitarium were first mooted, people who went there were admonished to do so when winter began in "downright earnest," which, in this latitude, is usually about the beginning of December. By degrees the pleasures of life in Florida became more apparent, and accommodations were multiplied and improved in response to the demand. Still later on, visitors did not wait until driven by sheer neccessity, the first snowflake or cutting blast being welcomed as an excuse for going to the land of flowers. Many of the visitors stayed until well along in May. But this is all changed this season, the yellow fever plague and scare being the cause of it. In a somewhat slangy but expressive street expression, Florida has a black eye, and the selfishness and the brutality engendered in cases by the rigid enforcement of quarantine and the foolish procedure of certain localities trying to benefit themselves at the expense of others, will keep the eye black for a long time to come.

And yet Florida is a great State, and it may have a great future before it. It has about 35,000,000 acres of solid land and over 4,000 square miles of water. Its sea coast extends 4,200 miles. It boasts of 19 large rivers, with an inland navigation of over 1,000 miles, and its railways are progressive. It produces over 1,000,000 bushels of oranges per annum. It produces more than one-half of the Sea Island crop of the United States. It raises the finest oranges, pine-apples and cocoanuts in the world. It exports annually immense quantities of early garden vegetables. It possesses millions of acres of timber trees. Its naval stores are exhaustless. It is the best country on the globe for raising sugar cane and rice. It produces 200 different varieties of woods—more than any other State. Its fisheries are extensive, and their possibilities are without limit. It exports more than $500,000 worth of sponges per annum. It abounds in natural fertilizers.

It has been well said that the physical aspect and position of the State is unique and remarkable, from the fact that not another large body of land in the world is so favorably situated for climatic advantages as this State. It stretches out like an arm into a vast ocean, lapped by the silver waves of the Gulf of Mexico on one side and on the other by the long-rolling billows of the Atlantic. In formation the famous Italian peninsula does not equal it. Occasionally one hears that Florida has been settled by the rich. That is true to some extent. Orange groves are made only in two ways—either by hard unremitting labor, guided by intelligent observation, or with money. It might be said that it requires both, but instances are not wanting where the poor man, not afraid of work, has, with hardly any money, brought into bearing valuable groves, and rich men, depending on irresponsible parties, have failed of success.

But of orange culture, alligators and Florida generally, together with impressions of four other Southern states, more anon.

"Practical Interest;" "Importance of Composition Work." An informal discussion will be had upon each of the above topics. Miss Helen White, of Rosendale; Principal Earl Stone, of Milton; Principal Grant Young, of Binnewater, and Principal J. E. Graham, of Wallkill, will open discussions.

Affairs of Local Railroads.

The gross earnings of the New-York Central & Hudson River Railroad Company for the quarter ending March 31, were $8,033,478. For the corresponding quarter in 1888, $8,152,796.

Superintendent Bissell of the Central-Hudson Railroad has issued an order to train officials, station agents, baggagemen and station doormen to discontinue the wearing of white caps. The style has been changed to black silk caps for station agents and train officials, trimmed with gold cord and blue cloth for station men and baggagemen.

A Curiosity.

A horse raised at Cape Cod is red in color and weighs 600 pounds. It resembles a cow when looked at from one direction, and a mule from another. It has the tail of a mule, but not the ears, and no mane, save a ridge of curly white hair. Its body is covered with wool.

IN AND OUT OF THE PORT OF RONDOUT

Arrivals at Tidewater—In and Outgoing Tows—Tugs, Freights, Etc.

The steamboat Norwich arrived at this port yesterday with a tow from Albany.

The propeller J. C. Hartt arrived in Rondout last night with a tow of boats and barges from New-York.

The whistle of the steamer "City of Kingston" was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek Saturday night at 6:35 o'clock.

It is said the barge Harvest Home, formerly used as an excursion boat, will hereafter be used for carrying immigrants from ships to Castle Garden, New-York City.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, Saturday, 58 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 7,500 tons of coal. This is the largest arrival of coal here thus far this season.

The steamboat Oswego and propeller J. H. Cordts cleared this port Saturday night with a large tow for New-York. To-night the same boats will leave the Metropolis with a tow for Rondout.

The following barges were reported at the Rondout Department of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company this morning for cargoes of coal: Budget 700 tons; K. Noyes, 230; Vanderwerken, 250; Saganew, 500.

The barge Miller, which was burned to the water's edge at Wallabout, several months ago, has been rebuilt at Livingston's Creek. It was launched on Saturday. Philip Washburn will be Captain of the Miller this season.

The following craft received cargoes of cement to-day along the docks in Ponckhockie: Schooners Louisa Smith, of Thomaston, Ga.; Enchantress, of New-York; Jennie E. Simmons, of Philadelphia; propeller Calvin S. Tomkins.

An evidence that there is at least one old soldier who ducks his head on the Delaware & Hudson Canal when the cry of "low bridge" is given is that a boat running on that canal bears the letters "G. A. R." on a board near the bow.

THE RECORD OF CITY AMUSEMENTS.

"Monte Cristo" in Liscomb's To-night—"Lost in London" Company.

This evening, in Liscomb's Opera House, Rondout, the Adams & Cook Dramatic Company open a week's engagement with the play of "Monte Cristo." The company played to crowded houses in Poughkeepsie, last week. Thomas E. Shea sustains the leading male parts, supported by a strong company. On Wednesday evening the play of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" will be presented.

Mrs. Scott-Siddons will give dramatic recitals in the Kingston Opera House, on Monday evening, April 15, in aid of the Industrial Home, of this City. Mrs. Scott-Siddons says she prefers the platform to the dramatic stage for many reasons. It gives her a wider scope for her powers, relieves her from the onerous duties of management, and gives her more time for enjoying the quiet of home life.

On Thursday evening, April 11, in Kingston Opera House, Newton Beers' "Lost in London" Company will be the attraction. The play is said to be a strong melo-drama, in which the star appears to good effect in the role of "Job Armroyd," the deserted husband. The characters of the drama are well drawn, and the play is unusually well put upon the stage, the scenic effects being elaborate and fine. The view of London at night in a snow storm is said to be realistic, and in the last act "Job's" celestial vision is a wonderful piece of mechanism. The support is said to be good.

A TROY OFFICER ROUGHLY HANDLED

A dispatch from Troy to THE FREEMAN to-day stated: During the election at West-Troy this afternoon Special Officer Byron attempted to arrest a man for illegal voting. A Lawyer's Eloquence.

Recently a lawyer at the Court House, Kingston, offered a piece of property, which lies in the town of Esopus, for sale. In his description of the property he said: "I am offered only $900 for this magnificent piece of property. It is situated on a lovely eminence overlooking the raging waters of the Creek as it empties into the Hudson as well as the seething streets of busy Rondout. It is worth $1,500 to any man who wants just that kind of property, for no other property can be purchased just exactly like it in this County."

John Cogswell, formerly of Port-Ewen, who has charge of the anchor barge Kent at Weehawken, is reported to be dangerously ill.

Bears in the Catskills.

There are people who refuse to believe bears are plentiful in the Catskills and that they are frequently killed. But notwithstanding this, R. E. Best, of Kingston, who is not supposed to purchase all the skins of bears killed in the range, has 11 skins taken from Catskill Mountain bears during the past winter.

Philanthropic Endeavor.

A philanthropist in Kingston has ordered enough "Pigs in Clover" puzzles to supply the prisoners in the Ulster County Jail, and the inmates of the County and City Alms House. His idea is that the puzzle will occupy the minds of the unfortunates and cause them to forget their woes.

Circuit Court.

Good Sap Weather.

The season for making maple sugar has been prolonged this spring. Every night for a week or more it has frozen just enough to make what the people in the country districts call "good sap weather."

ATTENDED A SKIMMINGTON.

A LIVELY TIME AT STEEP ROCKS ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

Men, who it is Alleged, were Filled with Shot by a Benedict who Refused To "Put Up"—Other Cases in Recorder's Court Reported.

This forenoon men named Solomon Sickler, Cooper VanSteenburgh and several others, of Steep Rocks, appeared in Recorder's Court, this City, and entered a complaint against one William H. Miller, whom they charged with wounding them with a gun. On Saturday night, they said, in company with others, they went to the house of Miller, who had been recently married, to give him a skimmington. They took with them a small cannon, which was fired several times. One of the crowd told Miller that he must "put up" a keg of beer on the wedding. "I'll give you beer," answered Miller, as he appeared to the crowd with a shot-gun in his hands. Miller, they alleged, discharged the contents of the weapon into the crowd. The gun was charged with buck-shot. Six persons, were hit by the flying shot, though no one was dangerously injured. Miller went to the Recorder of his own accord in company with the complainants. Recorder Hussey held him to await the action of the Grand Jury.

OTHER CASES.

One Daniel Stapley, intoxication and vagrancy, ordered to leave the City immediately.

The case of Stephen Franz vs. George Hamilton, for assault, was settled by the payment of costs by the defendant.

Two men who gave their names as John Palen, a printer, and Augustus Clare, a tin smith, were arraigned charged with "stealing rides" on the West Shore Railroad. They said they had paid their fares until their money was gone and rode but a few miles without paying. The Recorder discharged them.

On Saturday night a woman named Mrs. Mary King attempted to drown herself by jumping from a dock into the Rondout Creek. On being fished out she plunged in the second time and was again rescued. She was taken to the Ulster County Jail, in Kingston, and locked in a cell. The woman averred that she wanted to kill herself and would attempt to do so again as soon as she was released. Drs. E. H. Loughran and George Basten, who made an examination, believe the woman was not crazy, but was under the influence of intoxicants. She was brought into Recorder's Court, this forenoon, by Officer Glennon. The woman stated that she did not remember having attempted to commit suicide, and that if she did make such attempt, it was during a fit of despondency. She was held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., New York.

Judge Geo. C. Wing,

Of Auburn, one of Maine's prominent lawyers, and for several years the Chairman of the Republican State Committee, was troubled with boils on the back of his neck in their worst form, resembling carbuncles. Three bottles of Brown's Sarsaparilla completely cured him, and now Judge Wing speaks in the highest praise of Brown's Sarsaparilla.

The long sought remedy for spring lassitude has been found. Entirely free from the noxious alcohols it is compounded of these ingredients which extended medical experience has proven to be the most potential in their effect upon the kidneys, liver and blood, and, unlike the common "spring medicine" with which the market is flooded, its effect is not only immediate, but enduring. No stronger evidence to this effect could be offered than the voluntary testimony to its virtues of men of the character and position of those whose names appear with their willing permission through all our works. Men, women and children alike can take it with safety, and for ladies who are peculiarly susceptible to that tired feeling at this season of the year we advise the use of

Superannuated Preachers Ordered on the Records of Conference—Young Men Examined for the Ministry—Address—Religious Work.

J. H. Lane, of West Stockbridge, Mass., who is well known in this City, is in New-York attending the M. E. Conference, which is in session in that City. He writes to THE FREEMAN as follows:

SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Following the opening of Conference on Saturday, the Rev. W. C. Smith, reported in the case of superannuated preachers addressed to the Conference. They were ordered on the records.

The Rev. W. F. Hatfield, D. D., moved that a Committee for Entertainment of the Conference be ordered, on the self-supporting plan, which was carried.

The Rev. J. H. Mendenhall, D. D., editor of the Methodist Review, made an address on the "Drift of Thought in this Age, Touching the View of Evangelical Religion." He stated that the great centers of education, Yale, Harvard and Andover, were in a large measure rational, and "we must meet it by a pure evangelical Methodistic literature."

A class of 11 young men were examined as to their call to the ministry and their view of Bible doctrines as Methodists. They were addessed on the work of the ministry, the doctrines of the church, etc. The examination of these candidates was taken up in open Conference, and the following were admitted in full membership: W. F. Anderson, E. S. Tipple, R. A. Brown, E. S. Miles, E. M. Knisken, T. J. Peritz, A. E. Lord, C. A. Holla, A. M. Gay. The following continued on trial: L. F. Piper, Eugene Griggs.

The Rev. J. S. Chadwick, the Secretary of the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society, addressed the Conference on the "Work of Education in the South."

The Rev. A. H. Gillet, D. D., Secretary of the Sunday School Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, next spoke.

TO-DAY'S DOINGS.

A dispatch from New-York to THE FREEMAN to-day stated: At this morning's session of the Methodist Episcopal Conference most of the time was occupied with the reception of reports. C. J. Denning reported for the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society. Dr. O. H. Tiffany spoke of "Church Periodicals, and the Rev. J. W. Sellek gave the Conference the benefit of his observations among the Chaplains in the United States Navy. Dr. Hurlburt reported on the Sunday School Union. Other Committee reports included those in tracts, Deaconesses' Home, Pennington Seminary, the Missionary Society, Sunday School work, and the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Following these reports a sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. John Miley.

IN THE PORTAL.

The Hebrew Passover begins on Monday, April 15, and will last about eight days.

The Rev. Edwin Hunt, a former Kingston Pastor, but recently stationed at Stamford, preached in the Trinity M. E. Church, Newburgh, on Sunday.

At the morning service in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rondout, yesterday, the Rev. J. Prendergast preached an interesting sermon to children. He took his subject from the words: "He who is without sin, let him cast the first stone."

PALM SUNDAY.

April 14 is Palm Sunday. It is especially observed in Catholic and Lutheran churches. In the Catholic Church palms, after being blessed, are received by parishioners. Those remaining in the church are burned and the ashes used on Ash Wednesday. In the Lutheran Church the event is considered one of the most important in Church holidays. Communion is usually celebrated and the services are of an impressive character. Interesting services are also held in Episcopal Churches.

CANDIDATES.

In the Spring-Street Lutheran Church, Rondout, last evening 29 candidates for confirmation were examined in the presence of a large assemblage, by the Rev. A. Schmidtkonz, Pastor of the Church. The pupils showed careful training, and the questions propounded were readily answered. On Sunday next the rite of confirmation will be administered, and the candidates taken in as members of the congregation.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

Recently the Rev. M. Kuhnen, Pastor of St. Peter's German Catholic Church, Rondout, appointed the following Board of Trustees: John Weiss, Louis Roehling, Peter Fox, M. Dittmar, J. Albrecht, August Reichard, John Dorski, J. Heitzmann. The church organ, which is undergoing repairs, will soon be completed.

MEETINGS OF CLASSIS.

The Classis of the Reformed Church of Greene will meet in Leeds on Tuesday, April 16.

The Classis of Kingston will meet in the Fair-Street Reformed Church to-morrow forenoon at 11 o'clock. The Classical sermon will be preached by the retiring President, the Rev. Herman Hageman.

Wilbur D. Hale	Treasurer

Frederick Port was reappointed as keeper of the cemetery grounds. The next meeting will be held on the first Monday in June.

An Afflicted Family.

Joseph Rightmeyer, of Ponckhockie, is passing through a siege of affliction. About four weeks ago his eldest daughter was taken ill with the mumps. When she had nearly recovered Mr. Rightmeyer was confined to the house by erysipelas. When he became convalescent his youngest daughter went on a visit to her grandmother in the Rondout Lighthouse. There she was taken ill with the mumps, and about the same time his eldest child was seized with the measles at home. Between measles, mumps and erysipelas, Mr. Rightmeyer says this life is not all a bed of roses.

Postal Clerks' Trials.

Postal clerks are frequently called upon to decipher hieroglyphics on letters and packages. The following, which was written on a letter received in the Rondout Post-Office, to-day, is a sample: "Groser Riever Beth Dutchis County, N. Y." One of the clerks said by "Groser Riever" was meant "large river" and "Beth" was Bath. The address properly was Bath-on-the-Hudson. In German "groser" is large.

Sale Postponed.

Goods which were recently levied on C. H. Betts' premises, Vineyard Point, by Deputy Sheriff Smith, of Kingston, under an execution of the Supreme Court in favor of a man named Mains, of Highland, this County, are still stored in Rondout. The articles were to have been sold to-day to satisfy a judgment held by Mains, but the sale was postponed until April 22.

Promised for Tuesday:

Slightly warmer, northerly winds.

MINOR NOTES AROUND THIS TOWN.

Facts, Fancies and Gossip Heard by Reporters Here This Day.

Bound to come by-and-by—warmer weather. It is only a question of time.

A cataract was successfully removed from one of the eyes of Dr. Hyman Rosa, of this City, by a New-York specialist one day recently.

A man crying at the top of his voice: "Two Irish songs for five cents," aroused the ire of Abeel-street, Rondout, residents yesterday. An officer was sent for to arrest the desecrator of the Sabbath, but the fellow hastily decamped when he learned what was going on.

It is stated that "many business men refrain from advertising in the newspapers. This is not because they do not believe in printers' ink, but because they do not know how successful advertising is conducted. Were this forte generally understood, we would see more successful business men. Those who know the secret prosper, while those in the dark in this respect are always wondering why their neighbors manage to do a good trade as compared with the stagnation of their own." An old journalist, who has made a thorough study of the subject, has recently given his experience in this direction through the columns of a Cincinnati journal. He says: "In selecting a medium and properly preparing the matter, consists the true secret of successful advertising. Having decided these two points, be persistent. Never change your medium, or you lose in a great measure all previous effort and expenditure. Open with a large, well-displayed advertisement, and continue for three or four insertions, then reduce to reasonable limits, and hold that steadily. If the medium is a journal that will likely be kept or bound, a notice in the reading matter, with address, etc., so that it will be bound in the volume, will be seed planted that will bear fruit years after it is sown." Such a newspaper is THE FREEMAN.

PROVED TO BE A FATAL ACCIDENT.

A Young German Struck on the Head by an Iron Tub.

On Saturday afternoon a young German named John Gelski, of Rondout, received a fatal injury while assisting to unload a boat of coal at the Newark Lime & Cement Company's Works, Ponckhockie. An iron tub, which weighs over 500 pounds and has a capacity of holding about half a ton of coal, slipped from the hook that held it and it fell with a crash. It struck the combing of the boat, glanced off, struck a workman named Patrick Scully on his right arm, inflicting a painful injury. Gelski was not so fortunate. The tub struck him in the back of the head. He fell unconscious in the heap of coal. He revived, however, in a short time, and he was taken to his home on Ann-street, where he died at about 6:15 o'clock in the evening of concussion of the brain. Coroner Carr was notified. He impanelled a jury, of which George Roach is foreman. After viewing the remains the inquest was adjourned until to-night.

There are conflicting stories as to how the accident occurred. One of them is that Michael O'Neil, who had charge of the lever on the engine which raised and lowered the tub, hoisted the tub so high that the handle came in contact with the block, which threw the hook out of the eye, thus causing the accident. Another statement made is that the tub struck a small car which is used to convey coal to a pocket, and in this way became detached from the hook.

The deceased was 19 years old. His father, who has been informed of his son's death, lives in Cleveland, Ohio.

KINGSTON MAN BECOMES INSANE.

Will be Taken to Middletown Asylum—Religious Fervor.

A man named George Wright, who has lived with Christopher J. Winne, of Kingston, ever since he was a boy, has become crazy. During the rivival in the St. James M. E. Church, this City, last winter, Wright became very much interested and made prayers and exhortations. His brain became affected by his religious fervor and he would stand for several hours at a time in the yard at Mr. Winne's house with his hands raised above his head. His friends tried to divert his attention to other subjects, but to no avail, and he continued to grow worse. It was finally decided to put him under restraint. He was taken to the Ulster County Jail and examined by Drs. E. H. Loughran and G. Basten. They pronounced him insane. He will be taken to the Middletown Asylum. While in jail Wright refused to touch food.

BIG BLAZE IN COLUMBIA COUNTY.

Several Buildings Destroyed—The Loss and Insurance.

A dispatch from Hudson to THE FREEMAN to-day, stated: About 2 o'clock this morning, fire was discovered issuing from Stuppleben's store, in the village of Ghent, and there being no fire engines or water available, the business portion of the village was soon in flames and burned to the ground. Hartigan's store and hotel, and Stuppleben's grocery with all the barns and sheds, were totally destroyed, the loss amounting to between $8,000 and $10,000, on which there was an insurance of $4,500.

Action of Health Board.

At the last meeting of the Board of Health of this City, Health Inspector TenBroeck reported the bad condition of the celler of the building on the corner of Union-avenue and Mill-street, Rondout. The Inspector was told to notify the owners of the property to remedy the evil. This morning the work of putting the celler into a state of good sanitary condition was begun.

Improvement.

The neat iron fences which have taken the place of old wooden ones, in front of residences on Spring-street, between Wurts and Hone-streets, Rondout, have added to the appearence of that thoroughfare.

What Fishermen Say.

Shad fisherman begin to believe the season will be as late as last year when it did not open here until May 1.

IN THE LAND OF FLOWERS.

FLORIDA, HUMAN NATURE, AND THE RECENT YELLOW FEVER.

Men who Cannot for the Life of Them See Why Nature Could Have Any but Refuse Material After Building Their Specific Paradise.

Happy the people who are so situated that they can escape the bleak and trying weather of Northern winters and springs and spend these seasons in the land of balmy breezes, mellow sunshine, where the trees are always green and where all nature smiles. And twice happy are the Northerners, who, when the early summer rolls around are free once more to return to the invigorating atmosphere of their own section. Last week the exodus of "Yankees" and in many instances natives from localities in Florida to the North was begun. Through a large portion of Florida the belief is generally entertained that the ravages of yellow fever this year will be much more severe than last, and it is a matter of regret that so much sectional jealousy is displayed by citizens of one locality as against the alleged disadvantages of other sections in Florida.

Jaunting hither and thither over Florida it does not take a Northern man long to be convinced of this fact: Florida people are hurtling Florida more than all the rest of the Southerners and all the "Yanks" who go south of Mason & Dixon's line put together do. Men of apparently broad and liberal views respecting almost any other subject, seem to be infected with the belief that theirs is the only particular spot wherein fever never has a foothold, and there only can life be endured and a residence be made pleasant and profitable. This illusion can probably be best accounted for by charitably surmising that these enthusiasts have never been in the best portions of other communities, and are so well pleased with their own that for the life of them they cannot see why Nature could have had any but refuse material after building their specific paradises. An expressed and contented admiration of one's own locality is highly laudable when it is not narrow gauged—either from ignorance or selfish motives—into philippics abusive of other sections.

As an illustration of this general observation, take, for instance, the cities of Jacksonville and St. Augustine. The latter shrieks in the same breath that it is the oldest City in America and that there was not a single case of yellow fever there last year. Jacksonville, 36 miles distant, was a hot-bed of the plague. Jacksonville retorts in kind, and the result is that both cities have been irreparably damaged for years to come. A similar statement is applicable to scores of towns and villages, all claiming to be health resorts, in the State. The bitterness and the extent of the villifications and outrageous lying of the past eight months have done much to nullify the persistent advertising and the effect of the momentum imparted during so many years. Of late years it has been pointed out that various circumstances contributed to the gradual extension of the Florida season. When the advantages of the State as a winter home and sanitarium were first mooted, people who went there were admonished to do so when winter began in "downright earnest," which, in this latitude, is usually about the beginning of December. By degrees the pleasures of life in Florida became more apparent, and accommodations were multiplied and improved in response to the demand. Still later on, visitors did not wait until driven by sheer necessity, the first snowflake or cutting blast being welcomed as an excuse for going to the land of flowers. Many of the visitors stayed until well along in May. But this is all changed this season, the yellow fever plague and scare being the cause of it. In a somewhat slangy but expressive street expression, Florida has a black eye, and the selfishness and the brutality engendered in cases by the rigid enforcement of quarantine and the foolish procedure of certain localities trying to benefit themselves at the expense of others, will keep the eye black for a long time to come.

And yet Florida is a great State, and it may have a great future before it. It has about 35,000,000 acres of solid land and over 4,000 square miles of water. Its sea coast extends 4,200 miles. It boasts of 19 large rivers, with an inland navigation of over 1,000 miles, and its railways are progressive. It produces over 1,000,000 bushels of oranges per annum. It produces more than one-half of the Sea Island crop of the United States. It raises the finest oranges, pineapples and cocoanuts in the world. It exports annually immense quantities of early garden vegetables. It possesses millions of acres of timber trees. Its naval stores are exhaustless. It is the best country on the globe for raising sugar cane and rice. It produces 200 different varieties of woods—more than any other State. Its fisheries are extensive, and their possibilities are without limit. It exports more than $500,000 worth of sponges per annum. It abounds in natural fertilizers.

It has been well said that the physical aspect and position of the State is unique and remarkable, from the fact that not another large body of land in the world is so favorably situated for climatic advantages as this State. It stretches out like an arm into a vast ocean, lapped by the silver waves of the Gulf of Mexico on one side and on the other by the long-rolling billows of the Atlantic. In formation the famous Italian peninsula does not equal it. Occasionally one hears that Florida has been settled by the rich. That is true to some extent. Orange groves are made only in two ways—either by hard unremitting labor, guided by intelligent observation, or with money. It might be said that it requires both, but instances are not wanting where the poor man, not afraid of work, has, with hardly any money, brought into bearing valuable groves, and rich men, depending on irresponsible parties, have failed of success.

IN THE LOCAL FIELD OF EDUCATION.

Examination Exercises—Teachers' Association Meeting—Topics.

On Friday, April 12, the pupils of the day school connected with the Spring-Street Lutheran Church, Rondout, will be examined in reading, spelling, geography, arithmetic, etc.

The Teachers' Association of the Second Commissioner District of Ulster County will hold a meeting in Rosendale on Saturday, April 20, beginning at 10 A. M. The following will be the programme: "Township System of Public Schools," by Parr Harlow, of Kingston; "Primary Penmanship;" "Is U. S. History an Important Study?" "Practical Interest;" "Importance of Composition Work." An informal discussion will be had upon each of the above topics. Miss Helen White, of Rosendale; Principal Earl Stone, of Milton; Principal Grant Young, of Binnewater, and Principal J. E. Graham, of Wallkill, will open discussions.

Affairs of Local Railroads.

The gross earnings of the New-York Central & Hudson River Railroad Company for the quarter ending March 31, were $8,033,478. For the corresponding quarter in 1888, $8,152,796.

Superintendent Bissell of the Central-Hudson Railroad has issued an order to train officials, station agents, baggagemen and station doormen to discontinue the wearing of white caps. The style has been changed to black silk caps for station agents and train officials, trimmed with gold cord and blue cloth for station men and baggagemen.

A Curiosity.

A horse raised at Cape Cod is red in color and weighs 600 pounds. It resembles a cow when looked at from one direction, and a mule from another. It has the tail of a mule, but not the ears, and no mane, save a ridge of curly white hair. Its body is covered with wool.

Arrivals at Tidewater—In and Outgoing Tows—Tugs, Freights, Etc.

The steamboat Norwich arrived at this port yesterday with a tow from Albany.

The propeller J. C. Hartt arrived in Rondout last night with a tow of boats and barges from New-York.

The whistle of the steamer "City of Kingston" was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek Saturday night at 6:35 o'clock.

It is said the barge Harvest Home, formerly used as an excursion boat, will hereafter be used for carrying immigrants from ships to Castle Garden, New-York City.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, Saturday, 58 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 7,500 tons of coal. This is the largest arrival of coal here thus far this season.

The steamboat Oswego and propeller J. H. Cordts cleared this port Saturday night with a large tow for New-York. To-night the same boats will leave the Metropolis with a tow for Rondout.

The following barges were reported at the Rondout Department of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company this morning for cargoes of coal: Budget 700 tons; K. Noyes, 230; Vanderwerken, 250; Saganew, 500.

The barge Miller, which was burned to the water's edge at Wallabout, several months ago, has been rebuilt at Livingston's Creek. It was launched on Saturday. Philip Washburn will be Captain of the Miller this season.

The following craft received cargoes of cement to-day along the docks in Ponckhockie: Schooners Louisa Smith, of Thomaston, Ga.; Enchantress, of New-York; Jennie E. Simmons, of Philadelphia; propeller Calvin S. Tomkins.

An evidence that there is at least one old soldier who ducks his head on the Delaware & Hudson Canal when the cry of "low bridge" is given is that a boat running on that canal bears the letters "G. A. R," on a board near the bow.

THE RECORD OF CITY AMUSEMENTS.

"Monte Cristo" in Liscomb's To-night—"Lost in London" Company.

This evening, in Liscomb's Opera House, Rondout, the Adams & Cook Dramatic Company open a week's engagement with the play of "Monte Cristo." The company played to crowded houses in Poughkeepsie, last week. Thomas E. Shea sustains the leading male parts, supported by a strong company. On Wednesday evening the play of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" will be presented.

Mrs. Scott-Siddons will give dramatic recitals in the Kingston Opera House, on Monday evening, April 15, in aid of the Industrial Home, of this City. Mrs. Scott-Siddons says she prefers the platform to the dramatic stage for many reasons. It gives her a wider scope for her powers, relieves her from the onerous duties of management, and gives her more time for enjoying the quiet of home life.

On Thursday evening, April 11, in Kingston Opera House, Newton Beers' "Lost in London" Company will be the attraction. The play is said to be a strong melo-drama, in which the star appears to good effect in the role of "Job Armroyd," the deserted husband. The characters of the drama are well drawn, and the play is unusually well put upon the stage, the scenic effects being elaborate and fine. The view of London at night in a snow storm is said to be realistic, and in the last act "Job's" celestial vision is a wonderful piece of mechanism. The support is said to be good.

A TROY OFFICER ROUGHLY HANDLED

A dispatch from Troy to THE FREEMAN to-day stated: During the election at West-Troy this afternoon Special Officer Byron attempted to arrest a man for illegal voting. The prisoner was taken away and a fight followed in which the officer was bruised. The Police Commissioners this afternoon suspended Officer McKeon on the charge of interfering with a voter at the Democratic primaries.

Surrogate's Court.

The following was the day calendar in Ulster Surrogate's Court, Kingston, to-day: To show cause in estates of John Decker, John Christian Neifer and Clark Smith. To prove wills of Anna Murphy and Mary A. Zerfas. Judicial settlement in estates of Stephen O. Hagadorn and Catharine Elmendorf. The will of Anna Murphy, town of Wawarsing, was proved and admitted to probate. Witnesses, C. A. VanWagoner and John G. Gray. The will was made October 15, 1887. The estate is bequeathed to the three children, Mary Ann, Catharine and John Murphy. Mary Ann Murphy was appointed Executrix.

A Lawyer's Eloquence.

Recently a lawyer at the Court House, Kingston, offered a piece of property, which lies in the town of Esopus, for sale. In his description of the property he said: "I am offered only $900 for this magnificent piece of property. It is situated on a lovely eminence overlooking the raging waters of the Creek as it empties into the Hudson as well as the seething streets of busy Rondout. It is worth $1,500 to any man who wants just that kind of property, for no other property can be purchased just exactly like it in this County."

Old People.

The following are the names and ages of some old people in Rhinebeck: Mrs. Shaffer, 93; Captain B. F. Schultz, 85; Mrs. Elizabeth Cotting, widow of Frederick Cotting, 82; Ephraim Barringer, 80; Lewis Rider, 80; John Thompson, 84; William Cole, 80; Mrs. Teal, 90; Millard Waterman, 80; William Marshall, 85; Levi Leroy, 87.

People Who are Ill.

Brother Ambrose, of the Franciscan Brothers' school, Rondout, who has been ill with pneumonia, is convalescing.

John Cogswell, formerly of Port-Ewen, who has charge of the anchor barge Kent at Weehawken, is reported to be dangerously ill.

Bears in the Catskills.

There are people who refuse to believe bears are plentiful in the Catskills and that they are frequently killed. But notwithstanding this, R. E. Best, of Kingston, who is not supposed to purchase all the skins of bears killed in the range, has 11 skins taken from Catskill Mountain bears during the past winter.

Philanthropic Endeavor.

A philanthropist in Kingston has ordered enough "Pigs in Clover" puzzles to supply the prisoners in the Ulster County Jail, and the inmates of the County and City Alms House. His idea is that the puzzle will occupy the minds of the unfortunates and cause them to forget their woes.

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court and Court of Over and Terminer convened at the Court House, Kingston, this afternoon, Judge Mayhem presiding. A Grand Jury is in attendance. There are 190 cases on the civil calendar. It is said that Judge Mayhem can sit only one week.

Sporting Matters.

Many wheelmen were out on Albany-avenue, Kingston, on Saturday afternoon.

Ducks on the upper Hudson are "too fly" for hunters. Many are aimed at but few hit.

A base ball nine has been formed in Hudson under the name of the "Hudson High School Nine."

Good Sap Weather.

The season for making maple sugar has been prolonged this spring. Every night for a week or more it has frozen just enough to make what the people in the country districts call "good sap weather."

ATTENDED A SKIMMINGTON.

A LIVELY TIME AT STEEP ROCKS ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

Men, who it is Alleged, were Filled with Shot by a Benedict who Refused To "Put Up"—Other Cases in Recorder's Court Reported.

This forenoon men named Solomon Sickler, Cooper VanSteenburgh and several others, of Steep Rocks, appeared in Recorder's Court, this City, and entered a complaint against one William H. Miller, whom they charged with wounding them with a gun. On Saturday night, they said, in company with others, they went to the house of Miller, who had been recently married, to give him a skimmington. They took with them a small cannon, which was fired several times. One of the crowd told Miller that he must "put up" a keg of beer on the wedding. "I'll give you beer," answered Miller, as he appeared to the crowd with a shot-gun in his hands. Miller, they alleged, discharged the contents of the weapon into the crowd. The gun was charged with buck-shot. Six persons, were hit by the flying shot, though no one was dangerously injured. Miller went to the Recorder of his own accord in company with the complainants. Recorder Hussey held him to await the action of the Grand Jury.

OTHER CASES.

One Daniel Stanley, intoxication and vagrancy, ordered to leave the City immediately.

The case of Stephen Franz vs. George Hamilton, for assault, was settled by the payment of costs by the defendant.

Two men who gave their names as John Palen, a printer, and Augustus Clare, a tinsmith, were arraigned charged with "stealing rides" on the West Shore Railroad. They said they had paid their fares until their money was gone and rode but a few miles without paying. The Recorder discharged them.

On Saturday night a woman named Mrs. Mary King attempted to drown herself by jumping from a dock into the Rondout Creek. On being fished out she plunged in the second time and was again rescued. She was taken to the Ulster County Jail, in Kingston, and locked in a cell. The woman averred that she wanted to kill herself and would attempt to do so again as soon as she was released. Drs. E. H. Loughran and George Basten, who made an examination, believe the woman was not crazy, but was under the influence of intoxicants. She was brought into Recorder's Court, this forenoon, by Officer Glennon. The woman stated that she did not remember having attempted to commit suicide, and that if she did make such attempt, it was during a fit of despondency. She was held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Judge Geo. C. Wing,

Of Auburn, one of Maine's prominent lawyers, and for several years the Chairman of the Republican State Committee, was troubled with boils on the back of his neck in their worst form, resembling carbuncles. Three bottles of Brown's Sarsaparilla completely cured him, and now Judge Wing speaks in the highest praise of Brown's Sarsaparilla.

The long sought remedy for spring lassitude has been found. Entirely free from the noxious alcohols it is compounded of these ingredients which extended medical experience has proven to be the most potential in their effect upon the kidneys, liver and blood, and, unlike the common "spring medicine" with which the market is flooded, its effect is not only immediate, but enduring. No stronger evidence to this effect could be offered than the voluntary testimony to its virtues of men of the character and position of those whose names appear with their willing permission through all our works. Men, women and children alike can take it with safety, and for ladies who are peculiarly susceptible to that tired feeling at this season of the year we advise the use of
